PROPOSAL FORM

Name:	Brandon Levey
Date:	10.31.2011
Title of Proposal:	Expansion of Promoting Responsible Action in Medical Emergencies
Phone Number:	410-487-5382
Email Address:	BrandonALevey@Gmail.com
Campus Address:	6903 Preinkert Dr., Apt. 5214A, College Park, MD 20740
Unit/Department/College:	ARHU/History
Constituency (faculty, staff, undergraduate, graduate):	Undergraduate
Description of issue/concern/policy in question:	In March 2011, the University of Maryland Senate passed, and President Loh signed, "Promoting Responsible Action in Medical Emergencies," a policy that protects the individual caller and victim from university sanctions in the event of alcohol overdoses (however it does not apply to groups and organizations). This policy does not affect any legal punishments, but rather only university sanctions, such as probation or loss of housing. Furthermore, this does not provide any protection for students that are seeking medical help for overdoses of any drug other than alcohol.
Description of action/changes you would like to see implemented and why:	Saving lives needs to be the absolute top priority for our university. I would like to see our life-saving policy expanded to include all drugs, legal and illegal, as well

	as an educational campaign implemented to give students information on the policy. Since illegal drug possession on campus carries harsher punishment than underage alcohol consumption, students are often more hesitant to call for help during a drug overdose than an alcohol overdose. Even if the Office of Student Conduct has discretion in these cases, this fact does little to alleviate the fears of students that might be able to make a call that saves a life. I suggest a policy that is modeled on the alcohol-only Good Samaritan Policy passed last year. This would not give immunity for students that are accused of manufacturing or selling drugs, and would only cover students with no prior disciplinary record relating to drugs. Students that do have a record relating to this would be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Additionally, for this policy to apply, in each situation the student that overdosed on a drug would be required to take a drug-overdose or drug-prevention course, if the office of student conduct deems it necessary.
Suggestions for how your proposal could be put into practice:	I suggest amending Section 29 of the Student Code of Conduct, as was done in March when “Promoting Responsible Action in Medical Emergencies” was passed and became University policy. Additionally, an educational campaign educating students on campus about the effects of this policy could be implemented, as was done with the alcohol-overdose policy.
Additional Information:	Many Universities, both public and private, have amnesty policies that cover all drugs. Examples include the University of Florida, Washington College in Maryland, Northeastern University, the University of Pennsylvania, Columbia University, University of Georgia, and Cornell University. I have attached several of these policies for your consideration. Additionally, entire states have recently adopted this

	policy. The states of New York, New Mexico, Washington, as well as others have policies that protect the victim and caller in the event of an overdose on alcohol or drugs. I have attached the texts of these policies (as well as a signing statement by New York's Governor Cuomo) for your consideration. I am hopeful that the Maryland State Legislature will be taking up a similar bill this coming legislative session. Additionally, I have attached to this proposal an email thread from the Board of Regents stating that the University Senate has the legal authority to make this change.

Attached to this proposal:

- 1. Email to Brandon Levey from the Board of Regents giving the University Senate the authority to make changes to the Student Code of Conduct, including changes involving illegal substances (see email thread).
- 2. Variant comprehensive Medical Amnesty Policies at Washington College on Maryland's Eastern Shore, the University of Florida, Tulane University, College of William & Mary, University of Georgia, Georgia Public College, the University of Northern Iowa, University of Iowa, Northeastern University, the University of Pennsylvania, and Lehigh College.
- 3. Text of statewide Good Samaritan Policies in New York, Washington State, and New Mexico. Signing statement by New York Governor Andrew Cuomo.

Email thread for the email from the Board of Regents giving the University Senate the authority to make changes, including ones dealing with illegal substances (see original email 8/10/11), to the Student Code of Conduct

Brandon Levey, Re: University Policy Change

Hi Ms. Ogburn,

Hope you are doing well. My name is Brandon Levey, and I am currently a Student Senator at the University of Maryland, as well as a member of the Student Affairs Committee in the Senate. I was wondering, if the University Senate passes a change to the Student Code of Conduct, including one dealing with school punishments and sanctions for illegal drug possession or use, would this first need Board of Regents approval? Thanks so much.

Policies

Responsible Action Protocol

Purpose of Protocol

Students are encouraged to make responsible decisions in life-threatening situations that result from alcohol and/or other drug abuse and to seek medical attention for someone who is in danger because of intoxication. Students should alert University officials, UGA or local police, or professional medical personnel when they or their friends are in danger. A student who calls for or seeks emergency assistance on behalf of a student experiencing an alcohol or other drug related emergency may not be subject to mandatory alcohol and other drug sanctions under the Student Code of Conduct.

Scope of Protocol

1. The Responsible Action Protocol applies to students who seek assistance or medical treatment on their own behalf or on the behalf of another student.
2. The Responsible Action Protocol does not apply if the student seeking help for another student purchased, supplied, or otherwise made available the alcohol or other drug to the student needing medical assistance.
3. If a representative of an organization hosting an event calls for medical assistance, this act of responsibility might mitigate potential judicial consequences that could arise against the organization, i.e., the fact that an organization sought help might be considered in potential sanctioning for university policy violations.
4. The protocol applies only to the Student Code of Conduct and does not in any way prohibit law enforcement agencies within their jurisdictions from enforcing the laws enacted by the State of Georgia.

Requirements of Protocol

Students considered for the Responsible Action Protocol are required to meet with a member of the Office of Student Conduct who, after evaluating the situation, may also refer the student to a substance abuse specialist in the John Fontaine, Jr. Center for Alcohol Awareness and Education for assessment, counseling, and/or possible referral for treatment. Students who are referred to the John Fontaine, Jr. Center for Alcohol Awareness and Education but fail to meet and complete the recommendations in their entirety may be subject to further action.

Even if there is not a disciplinary action, the Office of Student Conduct will notify the parents of the student (Parental Notification Policy) and will maintain a file of the case which can be used as a prior record should subsequent alcohol or other drug violations occur. Academic transcripts will not reflect the incident but the file will be maintained in accordance with the Office of Student Conduct records management.

If the student has any subsequent incidents, these will be handled through the regular judicial process. If a violation is found to occur, prior records, including involvement in the Responsible Action Protocol, will be considered for sanctioning purposes. With a prior record, students may receive sanctions above any minimum described in the Student Code of Conduct, which can include suspension or expulsion from the University.

Limitation of Protocol

The Responsible Action Protocol applies only to alcohol and other drug-related medical emergencies. It does not apply to other prohibited behavior such as disorderly conduct (including physical or verbal abuse), property damage, or distribution of illicit substances.

Open Records – see below

Open records is state law requiring that public records be open and available for inspection by any member of the public. Public records include virtually all documents, papers, letters, maps, books, tapes, photographs, computer based or generated information, or similar material prepared, maintained or received in the course of the operation of a public office or agency. The University is a public agency; therefore it is subject to the act. Pursuant to the ruling of the Georgia Supreme court in the case of Red & Black Publishing v. Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia, student conduct records are open records, and therefore will be released, if requested, under the Georgia Open Records Act. Please direct questions to the Open Records Manager in the Office of Public Affairs at (706)542-8090.

Parental Notification – see below

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) has given colleges/ universities the option to notify parents or guardians about specific types of information from a student's judicial record.

The Office of Judicial Programs will notify parents or guardians the first time and every subsequent time a student is found to have violated Code of Conduct policies on the use or possession of alcohol or other drugs when he/she is under the age of 21.

PLEASE NOTE: Parents or guardians may receive correspondence or copies of arrest reports from The Dawg Catcher. This anonymous person or organization is not affiliated with the University of Georgia Office of Student Conduct. The Office of Student Conduct only notifies parents when a student is found to have violated Code of Conduct policies on the use or possession of alcohol or other drugs through a formal hearing or informal resolution.

Amnesty Policy (Good Samaritan Policy)

Introduction

The purpose of the Georgia College Alcohol and Other Drugs Amnesty Policy is to prevent students from being reluctant to seek assistance for themselves or someone else for fear of facing campus judicial action. It is an attempt to remove barriers that prevent students from seeking the medical attention that they need.

The policy does not necessarily grant amnesty for criminal, civil, or legal consequences for violations of Federal, State, or Local laws. Georgia College Public Safety Officers are sworn police officers with full arrest authority, and they have the autonomy to use that authority as circumstances dictate according to their professional experience. In general, unlike police from many other settings, Georgia College Public Safety officers attempt to balance a concern for student educational outcomes with their powers of arrest. In circumstances in which they choose to arrest students rather than refer them to the Student Judicial Board on campus, their decision is typically a result of evidence of gross irresponsibility on the part of the student, the presence of an apparent safety risk, or complications due to the student's non-compliance or belligerence.

Philosophy

The health and safety of members of the Georgia College community is a primary concern. Students need to seek immediate medical attention for themselves or others when someone's health and/or safety is at risk (examples include: alcohol poisoning, unconsciousness, sexual assault or physical assault). Students may be reluctant to seek assistance for themselves or someone else for fear of facing action from the Office of Student Affairs. Georgia College seeks to remove barriers that prevent students from seeking the medical attention they need.

Policy

Note: This Policy only provides amnesty from violations of the Georgia College Code of Conduct. It does not necessarily grant amnesty for criminal, civil, or legal consequences for violations of Federal, State, or Local law.

Students who seek emergency medical attention for themselves related to consumption of drugs or alcohol will not be charged with violations of the Georgia College Code of Conduct related to that consumption, provided that the student subsequently completes a screening from University Counseling Services and any recommended treatment within a reasonable time frame to be determined by the Office of Student Affairs. Failure to complete this screening/treatment may result in charges being filed with the Office of Student Affairs.

Students who seek emergency medical attention for someone else will not be charged with violations of the Georgia College Code of Conduct related to consumption of alcohol or drugs, or intoxication, provided that the student subsequently completes a screening from University Counseling Services and any recommended treatment within a reasonable time frame to be determined by the Office of Student Affairs. "Georgia College Public Safety officers will weigh heavily a student's cooperation and genuinely positive intent in determining whether a substance abuse situation allows them to provide the student amnesty from arrest."

Student Organizations are required to seek immediate medical assistance for their members or guests when any potential health risk is observed, including medical emergencies related to the use of alcohol and/or drugs. A Student Organization that seeks immediate assistance from appropriate sources will not be charged with violations of the Georgia College Code of Conduct related to providing alcohol, providing that the organization completes any educational programming required by the Office of Student Affairs and the Office of Campus Life. However, the organization can and will be held accountable for any other violations of the Code of Conduct related to the incident (e.g. endangering the health or safety of others, covered smoke detectors, etc.). Student Organizations that fail to seek immediate medical assistance for members or guests in need of attention will likely be charged with violations of the Code of Conduct and face dissolution or termination as the outcome of such charges. It is imperative that student organizations seek medical assistance for their members or guests in an emergency situation.

This Policy applies only to those students or organizations who seek emergency medical assistance in connection with an alcohol or drug-related medical emergency and does not apply to individuals experiencing an alcohol or drug-related medical emergency who are found by University employees (i.e. University Police, Faculty, administrative staff, residence hall staff).

The Georgia College Amnesty Policy is not intended to shield or protect those students or organizations that repeatedly violate the Code of Conduct. In cases where repeated violations of the Georgia College Code of Conduct occur, the University reserves the right to take judicial action on a case by case basis regardless of the manner in which the incident was reported. Additionally, the University reserves the right to adjudicate any case in which the violations are egregious.

Additionally, the Georgia College Amnesty Policy allows for assistance in cases of sexual misconduct. If you believe you have been involved in an incident of sexual misconduct, you have the right to pursue action through the University judicial system and/or the appropriate law enforcement authorities, and/or the courts. Georgia College further encourages anyone who has been involved in such an incident to pursue action through appropriate law enforcement authorities and/or the courts. The University wishes to encourage victims to report incidents of sexual misconduct and therefore reserves the right to waive disciplinary charges against victims for circumstances surrounding the incident. For example, a victim who had been an underage drinker would not typically face charges of violating alcohol policies.

Sexual Misconduct is any sexual act which violates the laws of the State of Georgia; and/or includes, but is not limited to: acts of rape (stranger and acquaintance or date rape) and other forms of coerced sexual activity, including unwanted touching, fondling or other forms of sexual conduct. Any sexual activity which is entered into without consent of both or all persons involved is a violation of this policy. A person may not avoid responsibility for a sexual activity because of impairment due to the influence of alcohol or other drugs. A person is deemed incapable of giving consent when that person is a minor under the age of 18 years, is mentally disabled, mentally incapacitated, physically helpless, under the influence of alcohol or drugs to the point of being unable to make a rational decision, unconscious or asleep. A person always retains the right to revoke consent at any time during a sexual act.

The Office of Student Affairs reserves the right to contact any student to discuss an incident whether or not the Georgia College Amnesty Policy is in effect.

Sponsorship Policy - A Policy on Sponsorship, Donations, Gifts-in-kind and its Affiliated AdvertisementPurpose:

This policy outlines sponsorships, donations, and gifts in kind for both events and organizations by outside individuals, companies, institutions, or organizations and the advertising rights associated with such financial and non-financial contributions for a specific Georgia College division, department, unit, or registered student organization.

Definitions:

1. Sponsor and Sponsorships are individuals, companies, institutions, or organizations which provide financing for all or part of an event or organization which is organized or associated with a Georgia College division, department, unit, or registered student organization in exchange for limited advertising rights in exchange for the financial contribution.
2. Donor and Donations are individuals, companies, institutions, or organizations which provide financing for all or part of an event or organization which is organized or associated with a Georgia College division, department, unit, or registered student organization that are not permitted advertising rights in exchange for the financial contribution.
3. Gifts and Gifts-in-kind Donations are individuals, companies, institutions, or organizations which provide materials, services, or supplies, free of charge, for all or part of an event or organization which is organized or associated with a Georgia College division, department, unit, or registered student organization that are permitted limited advertising rights in exchange for the contribution.
4. Advertising rights are rights granted to an individual, company, institution, or organization that permits limited advertisements and recognition as explained in the policy detail.
5. Georgia College Contracted Organizations are individuals, companies, institutions, or organizations that have a contractual agreement with Georgia College in some capacity.

Exemptions:

The Department of Athletics, the Colonnade, WGUR, and GCTV shall be exempt from this policy.

Policy Detail:

1. Prior to starting any solicitation of sponsorships, donations, or fundraising efforts, registered student organizations must contact the Department of Campus Life for initial approval.
2. Sponsorships and donations in the amount of $1,000 or more must adhere to the guidelines published by Georgia College's Office of University Advancement.
3. Solicitation or acceptance of sponsorships from merchants or vendors in direct competition with services provided by Georgia College, its contracted vendors, or where addressed by contractual agreements, is prohibited (See Appendix I).
4. Solicitation or acceptance of donations from merchants or vendors in direct competition with services provided by Georgia College, its contracted vendors, or where addressed by contractual agreements, is permitted only upon authorization by Georgia College's Office of University Advancement and Business and Finance.
 1. If a donation is accepted by a Georgia College division, department, units, or registered student organization the donor is not permitted advertising rights.
 2. Any Georgia College division, department, unit, or registered student organization may not seek or accept sponsorships from companies/vendors whose main focus of business is the manufacture, distribution, or sale of alcohol products.
 3. Preference should be given to Georgia College contracted organizations when soliciting sponsorship or donation opportunities.
 4. A list of Georgia College contracted organizations accessible through the Auxiliary Services will be maintained by Auxiliary Services and available on their website. <http://www.gcsu.edu/businessandfinance/auxiliaryservices.htm> (See Appendix II).
 5. Refusal of a sponsorship or donation solicitation by a Georgia College contracted organizations does not permit the solicitation of merchants or vendors in direct competition with services provided by Georgia College, its contracted vendors, or where prohibited by contractual agreements
 6. Advertising rights shall be limited to the following:
 1. If appropriate for an event, and no breach of the GC Catering guidelines or other contractual relationship will occur, the sponsor shall be allowed one booth or table for the sole purpose of promoting its business.

2. Sponsors may not solicit Georgia College students to sign any contracts or collect information that may be used for later solicitation.
3. Promotional items from a sponsor must be available to all organization or event participants without requiring participation in any activities required by the sponsor.
4. Advertisements, of any kind, of a sponsored event or organization that include sponsors names or logos must be approved by the office of Auxiliary Services prior to posting.
5. GCSU Catering Guidelines must be referenced in order to ensure no breach in any contract.

10. It is not permitted for any Georgia College division, department, unit, or registered student organization to use an event for the sole purpose of advertising any sponsor.

11. If any Georgia College division, department, unit, or registered student organization deviates from this policy, disciplinary actions will be taken in accordance with the respective division.

Posting of Signs for Campus Organizations, Departments, Events

All postings must be approved and stamped by the Department of Campus Life prior to its distribution on campus. Advertising which has not been approved will be removed and the individual(s) or organization(s) will be liable for disciplinary action.

The steps in receiving approval for signs or posters are as follows:

- Construct sign or poster to the proper specifications.
- Have the poster approved at the Department of Campus Life in the Student Activities Center.
- Place the posters in approved areas only.
- Clear posting privileges with each academic dean and department chairperson.

Stipulations regarding the placement of posters and signs are as follows:

- All signs or posters used by approved student organizations shall be approved by the Department of Campus Life.
- All signs or posters may be placed on bulletin boards located in specific areas on campus.
- Signs or posters may be placed on the various bulletin boards on the first floor of Maxwell Student Union, the residence halls, and other buildings upon the specific approval of the building/area supervisor.
- The food service office approves all signs or posters for the dining hall after initial approval by the Department of Campus Life.
- Bulletin boards in academic areas should not be used unless approved by the academic dean or department chairperson.
- No signs or posters are to be placed on glass doors or glass areas. No signs or posters are to be placed on walls. Specific permission is needed to put signs on any brick-walled building.
- Signs or posters shall be placed on bulletin boards by thumb tacks; staples, tape or adhesives are not allowed.
- Only approved student organizations can advertise on the Georgia College campus. Exceptions involving events of community interest shall be approved specifically by the director of auxiliary services.

Limitations on the size, content, and length of time posters may be displayed are as follows:

- Signs or posters are not to exceed 22" by 28" (poster size) unless approved by the building manager.
- Refreshments shall be used in place of words denoting alcoholic beverages on all organization social function signs.
- No signs or posters encouraging the excessive use of alcohol will be approved. No obscene material will be allowed on signage.
- All signs or posters may be advertised a maximum of ten days prior to an event.
- Signs or posters must refer to a specific event.
- Outdated signs or posters shall be removed by the advertising organization within 48 hours after an event. Any organization not adhering to this guideline may face advertising restrictions.
- A maximum of 25 signs or posters will be approved for placement under this policy.

Liability

All Georgia College students are asked to sign a release and waiver of liability before participating in university sponsored activities where there are potential risks. Copies are available in the Department of Campus Life or the Office of Legal Affairs.

On-Campus Dance Policy

The following rules are policy for on-campus dances sponsored by student organizations at Georgia College.

1. Dances with open admission are not an appropriate means for organizational fundraising. Because they have traditionally been used as such by Pan-Hellenic Council organizations and the Black Student Alliance, and because these dances have become traditional events at Georgia College, the department of campus life will cover the cost of two Public Safety officers for up to 10 such dances per semester, thereby reducing the need for these organizations to maximize attendance in order to cover expenses. These organizations may continue to charge a reasonable admission charge to defray the cost of the event.
2. The sponsoring organization must provide an adviser and students to work for the duration of the event. The number of students provided must be equal to the number of entrances to the room being used for the dance (accordingly, MSU Lounge requires one adviser and three

- students). Two of these people are to staff the admission table at the front door to check IDs, collect money, stamp hands, sign in guests, and prevent guests from walking down MSU hallways. The others are to be posted at the other entrances to the room, to prevent unauthorized entrance.
3. Dances are open only to Georgia College students and their invited guests. Current students of other colleges and alumni of a sponsoring Greek organization may also attend as guests. Admission of guests must follow these procedures:
 1. Individual guests may be admitted only if accompanied and sponsored by a Georgia College student. Each Georgia College student may have no more than one guest. Guests must be at least 17 years of age and present a picture ID for admission. A guest and his or her host must sign in together at the admission table. Guests must leave with their host or the host with their guest if either leave before the conclusion of the event. Hosts are responsible for the behavior of their guests and/or alumni.
 2. Fraternity / sorority alumni of sponsoring Greek organizations may be admitted to the event, with a picture ID and appropriate Greek paraphernalia or identification.
 3. Current students of other colleges must show a valid college ID for admission.
 4. All dances must be approved in advance by the director of campus life. As part of the approval process, the appropriate representative of the sponsoring organization must submit a signed copy of these rules, and a contract must be signed between the DJ (or other entertainers) and the organization. The DJ will not be allowed to advertise the event off the Georgia College campus, and will forfeit his or her fee for doing so.
 5. Arrangements must be made with the Georgia College Campus Police at least two weeks in advance to arrange two officers to work the event. One Campus Police officer will patrol the dance area and one will patrol the parking lot area. The officers must be hired from the advertised start time of the event until 30 minutes after the closing of the event. Campus police reserves the right to close down an event if the officers or advisors perceive that the sponsoring organization is being irresponsible or uncooperative with the officers or advisors. In such a case, the department of campus life may decline to cover the cost for the officers incurred at that event.
 6. No more than 200 people may be admitted to dances in the MSU Lounge.
 7. Posters with dance rules will be provided by the department of campus life and must be posted by the sponsoring organization, one outside the event venue and one inside near the admission table. These posters will include a stipulation that no refunds will be made.

Sexual Assault Victims Rights

Victims of sexual assault are afforded rights that are recognized by Georgia College. These rights include assistance by the university to help the victim. A copy of the policy for victims of sexual assault is available in the counseling center office and in the campus police department. In the event of a sexual assault, please contact one of these offices so that assistance can be rendered. Counseling for victims is also available in the counseling center.

Social Functions

Any registered student organization hosting a social event, whether on-campus or off-campus, will be expected to abide by all applicable local, state, and federal laws and regulations. All social events on campus must be approved by the director of campus life and must be in compliance with Georgia College policies and procedures for student organizations. If the event is held on campus facilities such as the East Campus (Lake Laurel), the main campus (Maxwell Student Union), and the J. Michael Peeler Athletic Complex (picnic grounds and athletic fields), appropriate facility usage request forms must be submitted to Continuing Education & Public Services where approval of the appropriate building/area supervisor will be obtained. A damage deposit must accompany the application in order for the request to receive full consideration. Completed requests must be submitted to the director of campus life for his approval of the appropriateness of the event prior to submitting to CE/PS. All applications must be approved in entirety one week prior to the date of the requested event.

Each organization sponsoring a social event on campus property must sign a statement of responsibility and a waiver of liability included on the Social Function Application releasing Georgia College from liability for personal injury or damages to property, littering or destruction, and cleanup of Georgia College property. All scheduled events shall terminate at designated times. If the organization plans to serve alcoholic beverages during the social event, they must adhere to the alcohol policy of the university. Organization advisors must be present at all social events where alcohol may be present.

The Board of Regents recognizes and supports the laws of Georgia with respect to the sale, use, distribution, and possession of alcoholic beverages on university campuses as well as within the state at large. To this end, the Board has endorsed a program designed to enhance awareness and curb abuse of alcohol by students and others in the University System. This program emphasizes that each institution shall stress individual responsibility related to the use of alcohol on and off the campus.

To assist in the implementation of alcohol awareness programs and to enhance the enforcement of state laws on the campuses of the University System, each institution shall adopt and disseminate comprehensive policies and procedures, consistent with state and local laws, concerning the use, distribution, and possession of alcoholic beverages on campus and institutionally approved events off campus. Disciplinary sanctions for violation of the policies or other unauthorized use of alcoholic beverages shall be included in each institution's disciplinary code of conduct.

A copy of the policies and procedures adopted by each institution shall be filed with and approved by the office of the vice chancellor for student services of the board of regents. This shall be reviewed and approved by this office annually thereafter.

Copies of policies and procedures, forms and information relative to the implementation of system policy on the Georgia College campus are available upon request from the department of campus life in the Student Activities Center.

Please note the following policies:

All registered student organization members, faculty, or staff using university facilities and serving alcoholic beverages must be in full compliance with the Board of Regents Alcohol On Campus policy as well as Georgia College Policies and Procedures for social functions.

Coordinators of events shall complete a Social Function Application one week prior to the proposed function.

Coordinators of events must sign a statement of responsibility and waiver of liability releasing Georgia College from liability for personal injury or damages.

Organization members or appropriate faculty or staff members will accept full responsibility for any personal injuries, damages to property, littering or destruction, and cleanup of Georgia College.

Registered student organizations must submit an appropriate damage and cleanup deposit attached to the Social Function Application.

All registered student organization events shall terminate on or before 12:00 midnight with the exception of the Maxwell Student Union Lounge where events may be held until 1:00 a.m.

If registered student organizations plan to serve alcoholic beverages during the social event (no sale is permitted on state property) they must be served no later than 30 minutes prior to the termination time, and within the following guidelines:

Alcoholic beverages may be served outside only at the J. Michael Peeler Athletic Complex picnic area and the Lake Laurel Lot.

Alcoholic beverages are served inside only within the Maxwell Student Union and the Lake Laurel Lodge.

Whenever alcoholic beverages are served, equally accessible, alternative, nonalcoholic beverages and snacks, or food must also be served.

Specific regulations for use of alcoholic beverages by registered student organizations must be followed.

Locations and conditions regarding faculty/staff receptions where alcohol is served may be approved on a case by case basis through the Division of Business and Finance in conjunction with the Department of Public Service.

Violations of the Social Functions Policy will result in the termination of further privileges and may include other possible disciplinary actions or sanctions.

which occur in University Housing facilities, the Dean of Students may resolve the complaint under these Code of Student Life procedures or utilize the Housing disciplinary procedures. Other violations will be handled as follows:

- i. Alleged violations of Rule 1 (Academic Misconduct) are handled under the procedures described in Part C, Academic Misconduct.
- ii. Complaints of abuse of service privileges, such as overdue library books, parking violations, intramural sports infractions, and misuse of placement offices and computer services, are resolved within the particular department that provides the service in question.
- iii. Formal complaints about sexual misconduct should be made to the UI Sexual Misconduct Response Coordinator (335-6200). Sexual misconduct complaints are resolved under the Judicial Procedures for Allegations of Sexual Misconduct set forth in B-b below. When a complaint of sexual misconduct is filed with the Sexual Misconduct Response Coordinator and referred to the Dean of Students, the Dean of Students shall designate an administrator to investigate the complaint. The investigator designated by the Dean is referred to in B-b below as the Sexual Misconduct Enforcement Officer. The Dean of Students may also elect to resolve stalking complaints, no-contact order violations, and/or dating violence under the Sexual Misconduct procedures. Depending upon the procedural election of the Dean of Students, an allegation of student conduct in violation of Rules [2-17] of the Code of Student Life may be resolved under the procedures below or under the Judicial Procedures for Allegations of Sexual Misconduct.

Persons with questions as to which University procedures apply to a particular situation may contact the Office of the Dean of Students or the University Ombudsperson for more information.

2. Investigation by the Office of the Dean of Students

Any person may bring a complaint against a student under these procedures based on an alleged violation of the Code of Student Life (see extent of jurisdiction in introduction). Complaints alleging non-sexual misconduct in violation of Code of Student Life Rules 2-25 are made to the Office of the Dean of Students. When such a complaint of misconduct is made to the Office of the Dean of Students, an administrator (referred to as the Judicial Administrator) will be designated to investigate the complaint

In investigating a Code of Student Life complaint, the Judicial Administrator will gather relevant evidence to determine whether one or more misconduct rules were violated. The Judicial Administrator has the authority to issue interim sanctions during the investigation as explained below in Section 8. Based on the initial review of the complaint, the Judicial Administrator may send a Policy Reminder Letter to the student accused of misconduct. A Policy Reminder Letter is not considered a finding of responsibility, but rather a formal notice of University rules.

The investigation process is not open to the public. To ensure confidentiality of student record information, the process followed shall comply with all state and federal rules governing student records. The Judicial Administrator will notify the student accused of misconduct of the allegations in a Notice of Complaint letter in writing or by electronic mail. The letter will explain the Judicial Procedures for Alleged Violations of the Code of Student Life.

The Notice of Complaint letter may direct the accused student to attend a pre-scheduled meeting. At the meeting, the accused student has the right to respond to the charges, to submit documents and other relevant evidence, and to identify witnesses who may have information relevant to the complaint. The accused student also has a right to bring an advisor (e.g., attorney, parent, support person) to this meeting. If the accused student decides not to respond to the Notice of Complaint, the Judicial Administrator has the authority to complete the investigation without input from the accused student or to reschedule the meeting. If the accused student does not attend the meeting, the Judicial Administrator can impose sanctions, including sanctions for non-compliance, if the administrator determines that the accused student violated one or more Code of Student Life rules.

While the Judicial Administrator's investigation is pending, the person who brought the complaint and the person accused of misconduct each have the right to know, upon request, of the status of the investigation. The student accused of misconduct may consult with the University Ombudsperson or other advisers during the investigation.

3. Resolution of Cases

The standard of proof under these procedures is preponderance of evidence. After completing the investigation and consulting with the Dean of Students, the Judicial Administrator may resolve a complaint in one of three ways: (1) dismiss all of the misconduct allegations without imposing sanctions; (2) determine that the accused student violated the Code of Student Life and that non-suspension sanctions should be imposed; or (3) determine that the accused student violated the Code of Student Life and that suspension or expulsion should be imposed.

a. Non-Suspension Sanction Cases

If the violation does not involve a possible suspension or expulsion, sanctions may be imposed by the Judicial Administrator. With the exception of university suspension or expulsion, the Judicial Administrator has the authority to impose on the accused student any one or a combination of the disciplinary sanctions listed below in Section 7.

The Judicial Administrator's findings of fact shall be summarized in a letter to the accused student. This letter shall also specify the sanctions imposed by the Judicial Administrator. The Judicial Administrator's letter to the accused student shall reference the appeal procedure and set a deadline for appealing the Judicial Administrator's decision to the Vice President for Student Services (see non-suspension case appeals in Section 6 below). Upon request, the accused student shall be given access, as provided by education record laws, to the documents and other evidence pertaining to the accused student which was compiled by the Judicial Administrator during the investigation.

b. Suspension Sanction Cases

In cases where a university suspension or expulsion may be warranted if the accused student is found guilty, the Judicial Administrator will consult with the Dean of Students. The Dean may choose to further investigate the complaint or to order a suspension hearing as described in Section 5 below. If the Dean of Students chooses to further investigate the complaint prior to ordering a suspension hearing, the Dean or designee will contact the accused student to schedule a meeting. At the meeting, the accused student has the right to respond to the charges, to submit documents and other relevant evidence, and to identify witnesses who may have information relevant to the complaint. The accused student also has a right to bring an advisor to this meeting.

i. Student Does Not Dispute Charges

In cases where the accused student acknowledges he or she violated the rules outlined in the Code of Student Life, the Dean of Students may suspend the student or impose non-suspension sanctions. The process for appealing sanctions issued by the Dean of Students in non-disputed cases follows the post-hearing appeal process described below in Section 6.

ii. Student Disputes Charges

In cases where the allegations are disputed by a student who is facing a university suspension, the Dean of Students shall schedule a formal administrative hearing. The hearing shall follow the process describe below.

4. Administrative Hearing Process

The Vice President for Students Services is responsible for designating administrators who may serve as Hearing Officers. The Dean of Students shall designate the Charging Officer for the case and the Hearing Officer from among those listed by the Vice President.

The accused student has the right to request a different Hearing Officer. This request must be made in writing to the Dean of Students at least 2 University business days before the hearing is scheduled to begin. At the discretion of the Dean of Students, this request will be granted if the student can show that the original Hearing Officer has a conflict of interest or a demonstrated bias in the case.

The Charging Officer's role is to represent the University at the formal hearing and to coordinate the presentation of evidence against the accused student. The Dean of Students, the Judicial Administrator, or another appropriate person may be designated to be the Charging Officer.

a. Notice of Hearing

It is the responsibility of the Charging Officer to send the accused student the Notice of Hearing letter, with a copy to the Hearing Officer. The Notice of Hearing shall (1) set out the rule or rules which have been allegedly violated, (2) state the alleged actions or behavior, (3) list the names of any witnesses intended to be called by the charging party, (4) advise the student of his or her rights and of the hearing procedure, (5) state the time and place of the formal hearing, and (6) specify the sanction(s) to be imposed if the student is found guilty. Depending upon the hearing officer's findings, the Dean of Students may elect to reduce unilaterally the severity of the sanctions following receipt of the Hearing Officer's decision.

The accused student will be mailed or served the Notice of Hearing at least 7 University business days before the hearing. Notice of Hearing will be sent by U.S. mail, campus mail (for on-campus residents), electronic mail, or served personally. The accused student will receive notification of names of any additional witnesses intended to be called by the Charging Officer at least 2 University business days before the hearing is scheduled to take place.

b. Consolidated Hearings

The Dean of Students may elect to resolve two or more complaints against one student at a single hearing. In addition, the Dean of Students may elect to resolve a complaint against two or more students at separate hearings or at a single hearing in the event that the complaints arose out of the same transaction or occurrence. Any challenge about complaint consolidation or separation will be determined by the Hearing Officer. To challenge a decision to separate or consolidate a complaint, the accused student must notify in writing the Hearing Officer of the grounds for the challenge at least 2 University business days before the hearing is scheduled to take place.

c. Postponing the Hearing

If the accused student cannot appear at the time specified in the Notice of Hearing, the accused student must contact the Hearing Officer at least 2 University business days before the hearing is scheduled to arrange a different time for the hearing. If the accused student has not contacted the Hearing Officer and does not appear at the hearing, the Hearing Officer may make a decision on the charge.

d. Registration Withdrawal by Accused

After the Notice of Hearing letter has been sent to the accused student, the Dean of Students may elect to cancel the hearing if the accused student withdraws his or her registration from the University before the hearing. A restriction shall be placed on the registration of the student and the student's record shall indicate that he or she withdrew after a disciplinary complaint was filed. The student may petition the Dean of Students for reinstatement no sooner than one full semester after withdrawing from the University.

e. Rights of Accused Student at the Formal Hearing

The accused student has the following rights at a hearing: (1) to respond to the charges; (2) to present witnesses and evidence; (3) to cross-examine witnesses presenting evidence against the student as long as the questions are relevant, material, and not unduly repetitive; (4) to be represented by an adviser at the student's expense. Prior to the hearing, the student has the right to examine his or her disciplinary file in the Office of the Dean of Students. The student also has a right to know and review, upon request, the written documents or other physical evidence in the disciplinary file the Charging Officer plans to present at the hearing. To examine the disciplinary file or learn what documents will be presented at the hearing, the student should contact the Office of the Dean of Students at least 2 University business days before the hearing is scheduled to take place and arrange a meeting.

f. Rights of Complaining Party at the Formal Hearing

The person who filed the complaint has the following privileges at a formal hearing if he or she elects to testify: (1) to present his or her side of the story; (2) to be accompanied by a person who may advise him or her of the hearing process; (3) to remain in the hearing room during the hearing; and (4) to be informed of the outcome of the hearing as permitted under federal laws governing confidential student record information.

g. Rules of Hearing Adjudication

The Hearing Officer shall preside at the hearing. At the start of the hearing, the Hearing Officer shall (1) inform the student of the charge, the hearing procedures, the sanctions to be imposed if found guilty, and his or her rights and (2) answer any questions the parties may have. The Hearing Officer shall hear and receive evidence to determine whether a violation of the Code of Student Life has occurred. The hearing shall be recorded.

After informing the student of the hearing procedures, the Hearing Officer shall ask the student charged to plead to each charge. If the student pleads not responsible, the Charging Officer shall present the University's case and shall offer evidence, which may include written testimony and witnesses, in support of the charge. Ordinarily, each witness will remain outside of the hearing room until called to testify and, once seated, will be requested to respond truthfully to the questions posed. The accused student may cross-examine the witnesses presented by the charging party. The accused student may then present his or her case and may offer evidence, including written testimony and witnesses. These witnesses shall be subject to cross-examination by the Charging Officer. The student and the Charging Officer may present character witnesses in cases where such evidence is relevant to the findings of fact.

If the student pleads responsible to all of the charges contained in the Notice of Hearing, the Hearing Officer may elect to conclude the hearing.

The Hearing Officer shall control the hearing process and maintain a level of decorum appropriate for a quasi-judicial proceeding at an educational institution. In the event the hearing is disrupted, the Hearing Officer may order individuals from the hearing room to preserve decorum.

h. Privacy and Partitions

The hearing shall be closed unless the accused student specifically requests in writing at least 2 class days before the hearing that the hearing be open. If the student requests an open hearing, the Hearing Officer may nonetheless elect to close all or part of the hearing. The Charging Officer may request that the Hearing Officer place partitions or other physical barriers in the hearing room between the complaining party and the accused student. If partitions are installed to prevent the two parties from viewing each other, the accused student shall have the opportunity to question the complaining witness even though the accused student cannot view the complaining party due to the partitions. A request to install partitions must be made in writing at least 2 class days prior to the hearing with a copy to the accused student.

i. Cross-examination

The process of cross-examination shall be determined by the Hearing Officer at the start of the hearing. Ordinarily, questions are submitted either verbally or in writing to the Hearing Office for evaluation first before the witness is asked to answer. A proposed question may be modified by the Hearing Office in order to mediate the question tone or to ensure the clarity of the question. Depending upon the preferences of the Hearing Officer, the Charging Officer and the accused student may be permitted to ask their questions directly to the witness.

j. Standard of Proof

The Charging Officer must show by a preponderance of evidence that the Code of Student Life was violated. The Hearing Officer may exclude irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitive evidence. A finding by the Hearing Officer shall be based upon the kind of evidence on which reasonably prudent persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of their serious affairs. Objections to evidence or witnesses may be made and shall be noted in the record.

k. Hearing Officer's Decision

The Hearing Officer's decision shall be issued in writing within 10 University business days after the conclusion of the hearing. Notification of Decision shall be sent to the Dean of Students with a copy to the accused student, the Charging Officer, and to other appropriate University officers. If the accused student is found not guilty of all Code of Student Life charges, the complaint will be considered dismissed and the sanctions listed on the Dean of Student's sanction document shall not go into effect unless the Hearing Officer's decision is modified on appeal.

If the accused student is found to have violated the Code of Student Life, the Dean of Students will review the hearing officer's written decision and the pre-hearing list of sanctions. If the Dean of Students decides to reduce the severity of the sanctions in light of the hearing officer's decision, the Dean of Students will write to the accused student and outline the final list of sanctions. The Dean of Students' notification of sanction letter shall include a statement of the appeal procedure. If the Dean of Students decides to impose the sanctions specified in the pre-hearing list of sanctions, the Dean of Students will write to the accused student and confirm his/her sanction decision by attaching a copy of the pre-hearing list of sanctions and a copy of the appeal procedure. The sanction document would then be placed in the student's disciplinary file in the Office of the Dean of Students.

It is the responsibility of the Dean of Students to notify the complaining party in writing of the outcome of the hearing and of the sanction in a timely manner consistent with federal and state privacy laws. The Dean of Student's letter to the complaining party should include a statement explaining the appeal procedure as set forth below.

5. Appeals

When a Judicial Administrator or Hearing Officer finds the accused student responsible for violating the Code of Student Life, the accused student has the opportunity to appeal the outcome and request an administrator review the decision and the sanctions. Appeals are administered either by the Vice President for Student Services or by the Office of the Provost, as explained below. Interim sanctions are appealed under a different process (refer to Section 8 for information about the process for modifying interim sanctions).

In some cases, a student who brought a complaint against another student has the opportunity to appeal the decision of the Judicial Administrator or Hearing Officer. In cases resolved at a formal hearing by a Hearing Officer, the Charging Officer is permitted to appeal the Hearing Officer's interpretation and application of the conduct regulations. The Charging Officer and the complaining student are not permitted to appeal the Hearing Officer's conclusions as to the facts of the case except to argue they are not supported by substantial evidence.

A party who wishes to appeal the decision or sanctions must file a written notice of appeal with the Office of the Dean of Students. The student may elect to include supporting materials along with the written petition. The petition for appeal should specify the basis for appeal by choosing one or more grounds from the list of grounds set forth below. For an appeal to be considered, a written petition must be received by the Office of the Dean of Students no later than 10 University business days following student's receipt of the written notice of the decision. The appeal may be submitted electronically, by fax or hard copy. If the appeal deadline passes without a written request for review, the sanctions listed in the decision letter to the accused student will become effective and the complaint will be considered resolved. When the Dean of Students receives a petition within the timeframe and confirms the case as appropriate for appellate review, the Dean will refer the entire record of the case to the Vice President for Student Services or the Office of the Provost, as explained below.

Any sanctions imposed shall ordinarily remain in effect while the outcome of the appeal is being considered. A request to stay or suspend disciplinary action must be included in the notice of appeal, or the ability to seek a stay or suspension of disciplinary action is waived. Affirmative written approval by the Dean of Students is required to stay or suspend the disciplinary action.

Grounds for Appeal

The petition for appeal should specify the basis for appeal by choosing one or more grounds from the following list: (1) the decision to find the accused student guilty or not guilty was unsupported by substantial evidence when the information compiled is viewed as a whole; (2) with respect to issues disputed during the investigation, the decision was, as a whole, unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious or characterized by an abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion; (3) the sanction imposed for the violation was unreasonably harsh or lenient when the nature of the violation and the disciplinary record of the accused student are considered; (4) the procedures were not properly followed and the error or oversight substantially compromised the student's rights; or (5) new evidence, not reasonably available at the time of the hearing, is of sufficient importance to warrant reconsideration by the Judicial Administrator, Dean of Students, or the Hearing Officer.

Appeals Review Process

Appeals in cases that do not result in suspension or expulsion are reviewed by the Vice President for Student Services or designee (Vice President). Appeals in suspension and expulsion cases are reviewed by the Provost or designee (Provost). The Dean of Students shall deliver the appeal petition and the student's disciplinary file to the Vice President or Provost no later than 10 University business days after the Dean's receipt of the notice of appeal. Depending upon the nature of the complaint, the status of the appellant, and the content of the appeal petition, the Dean may notify the complaining party and/or the accused student of the contents of the appeal.

Before delivering the student's file to the Vice President or Provost, the Dean may decide to insert in the student's disciplinary file a written response to the appeal petition. A copy of this letter will be sent to the person who filed the appeal. Within 10 University business days of the date the record is sent, the appealing party may respond to the letter submitted by the Dean of Students. Any response shall be in writing addressed to Vice President or the Provost, with a copy provided to the Dean of Students.

In cases resolved by the Judicial Administrator, the Vice President may determine to affirm the Judicial Administrator's decision on appeal after reviewing the information compiled by the Judicial Administrator during the investigation and the past disciplinary record of the charge student. Alternatively, the Vice President may determine to reverse or modify the outcome, or grant other appropriate relief, or remand the complaint to the Judicial Administrator with instructions to investigate the complaint further. If the Vice President for Student Services believes a university suspension may be warranted, the Vice President may order a formal suspension hearing (in which case the accused student would be notified of the time and place of the hearing and the name of Hearing Officer as explained Section 5). A decision by the Vice President to grant relief to the appellant shall be based on one or more of the grounds listed above. The Vice President's decision on appeal will be transmitted in writing to the Judicial Administrator, to the accused student, and to other appropriate University officials within 20 University business days following receipt of the appeal petition. A summary of the outcome of the appeal may be provided to the complaining party. The final decision on appeal, as well as the notices and other related documents, will be kept in the student's disciplinary file in the Office of the Dean of Students.

In suspension and expulsion cases, the Provost shall review the record of the case and the past disciplinary records of the accused student. The Provost or designee may decide to affirm the decision. Alternatively, the Provost or designee may determine to reverse or modify the outcome, or grant other appropriate relief, or remand the complaint to the Hearing Officer (in cases which were resolved at a formal hearing) with instructions to reconsider the decision. If no formal hearing was conducted by an Administrative Hearing Officer prior to the appeal and an issue of fact is in dispute which is material to the outcome of the case, the Provost or designee may refer the case back to the Dean of Students and order an evidentiary hearing. A decision by the Provost to grant relief to the appellant shall be based on one or more of the grounds listed above. In responding to an appeal by the Charging Party, the Provost or designee may affirm or modify the Hearing Officer's interpretation of the student conduct rules.

The decision on appeal and the reasons therefore will be transmitted in writing to the person who filed the appeal, to the accused student, the Charging Officer (in a case resolved at a hearing), to the Dean of Students, and to other appropriate University officials within 20 University business days of the receipt of the appeal petition. A summary of the decision on appeal may be provided to the complaining party. The decision of the Hearing Officer and the final decision on appeal, as well as the notices and other related documents, will be kept in the student's disciplinary file in the Office of the Dean of Students.

6. Sanctions

The following sanctions are to serve as guidelines rather than as a definitive list of sanctions. A single sanction or a combination of sanctions may be imposed.

- i. Disciplinary Warning: This sanction is a strong, written warning that if there is a repetition of the same action or any other action in violation of the Code of Student Life, the student can expect additional disciplinary action.
- ii. Disciplinary Probation: When on disciplinary probation a student is not considered to be in good standing with respect to the non-academic disciplinary system and any further violations may lead to suspension or expulsion from the University.
- iii. Restitution and Fines: A student may be assessed reasonable expenses related to the misconduct. This may include, but is not limited to, the repair/replacement cost for any damage he or she causes to property or medical or counseling expenses incurred by the victim. If a student violates a residence hall policy that calls for the imposition of a fine, a fine will be assessed consistent with residence hall practice.
- iv. Educational Sanction: A student may be required to provide a specific service or participate in a specific program, receive specific instruction, or complete a research assignment. The student is responsible for related expenses, including expenses for education, counseling, or treatment, if any expense is entailed.
- v. Exclusion from University Facilities or Activities: A student may be terminated from employment or prohibited from accessing University computer equipment or internet connections, attending a class, undertaking University employment, entering a building, participating in a co-curricular activity recognized or sponsored by the University, representing the University in an official capacity, or using other services provided by the University. Such exclusion may be for a definite or indefinite period of time.
- vi. Disciplinary Suspension: A student may be involuntarily separated from the University for a stated period of time after which readmission is possible. A student with one or more violations may be suspended from the University for an indefinite period of time. A student suspended indefinitely may petition to the Dean of Students for reinstatement.
- vii. Expulsion: When a student has a record of serious violations, he or she may be dismissed from the University permanently.
- viii. Residence Hall Suspension or Transfer: A student may be involuntarily removed from the residence halls or transferred to a different hall or floor. Unless specifically permitted to do so by the Dean of Students, a student suspended from the residence halls is ineligible to use residence hall services, including board plans, and may not enter the residence halls. For purposes of progressive discipline, a student suspended from the residence halls may be suspended or expelled from the University if he or she is found to have violated the Code of Student Life subsequent to the housing suspension.
- ix. No-Contact Order: A student may be prohibited from intentionally contacting a student, employee, or visitor to campus in any manner at any time. Such prohibition may be in effect for a specific or an indefinite period of time.

7. Interim Sanctions and other Temporary Restrictions

A student may be suspended from the University or have privileges revoked pending the outcome of a disciplinary proceeding if, in the judgment of the Dean of Students or the Judicial Administrator assigned to the case, the student's continued presence or use of privileges at the University pending the outcome of the proceeding is likely to cause harm to faculty, staff, other students, other specified persons or groups, or University property. The Dean of Students or Judicial Administrator will base an interim sanction judgment on evidence gathered in the initial stage of an investigation of the alleged conduct. Ordinarily, the Dean or Judicial Administrator will converse with the student when interim suspension is considered.

A student suspended or restricted under this section may seek review of that decision by requesting the Dean of Students reconsider the decision within 5 University business days after the student has received a notice of interim sanctions. If not satisfied with the response, the student may request that a University disciplinary hearing be held to resolve the merits of the complaint. When a student restricted on an interim basis requests a hearing to resolve the complaint, the type of hearing provided will be determined by the Dean of Students. If the Dean of Students decides to recommend a suspension or expulsion from University classes as the permanent sanction if the student is found responsible for violating Code of Student Life rules, the Dean will order a suspension hearing and assign a Hearing Officer to adjudicate the complaint. When the Dean of Students decides to recommend a sanction less than suspension if the student is found responsible for violating Code of Student Life rules, the Dean will assign a Judicial Administrator to adjudicate the complaint.

8. Compliance with Sanctions

Students who fail to comply with a sanction in a reasonably timely manner are subject to additional disciplinary action, which may include Suspension from the University. The Dean of Students' authority to take additional disciplinary action in cases of non-compliance extends to complaints resolved through informal agreement, complaints resolved at a formal hearing, and complaints resolved by another University department such as University Housing.

In the event that a student fails to comply with a sanction and the Dean of Students is prepared to impose a suspension, the student will be notified of the apparent failure to comply and of the Dean of Students' intent to suspend, and provided an opportunity to meet personally with the Dean of Students and explain the circumstances prior to a final decision by the Dean of Students. A student suspended for failing to comply with a sanction may appeal the Dean of Students' decision to the Provost but is not entitled to a formal hearing before a Hearing Officer. All appeals must be made in writing to the Provost within 10 business days following the date of the decision by the Dean of Students.

9. Records

If disciplinary action is taken against a student under these procedures and a sanction imposed, a record of the action will be kept by the Office of the Dean of Students. Ordinarily, disciplinary records are kept on file until a student graduates or 3 years following resolution of the case, whichever is longer. In suspension or expulsion cases, the disciplinary records are maintained indefinitely.

Under federal law, disciplinary records are part of the education records of the student and, consequently, are not ordinarily available for public disclosure or discussion without prior written permission from the student. There are exceptions in the law to the non-disclosure rule, and the Office of the Dean of Students reserves the right to disclose information contained in education records to other persons or to the public as permitted under the law (refer to "Student Records Policy," Section I.C of Policies & Regulations affecting Students).

10. Criminal Charges

Students who face criminal charges may also be subject to University disciplinary sanctions if the conduct which gave rise to the criminal charges also violates the Code of Student Life. An initial investigation may be undertaken before criminal procedures have concluded in order to determine whether interim sanctions are to be invoked. The Dean of Students or the Judicial Administrator may elect to delay the resolution of a Code of Student Life complaint if criminal charges are pending. If the Dean of Students elects to do so, the Code of Student Life complaint will be resolved after the criminal charges are resolved unless the student requests a hearing to resolve a University complaint while criminal charges are pending.

University regulations and procedures are distinct from criminal statutes and procedures. The outcome in a criminal or civil proceeding is not dispositive of the question of whether the Code of Student Life was violated in all cases. If convicted in criminal court of conduct prohibited under the Code of Student Life, a student will be considered responsible for violating University conduct regulations and therefore subject to disciplinary sanctions. For purposes of these procedures, a conviction includes a guilty plea, jury verdict, judicial decision, or deferred judgment.

In the event a convicted student files a criminal appeal, the University will consider the question of criminal guilt to be final only after the matters on appeal have been resolved, although the Dean of Students may impose an interim sanction pending the outcome of an appeal or proceed with disciplinary charges. Due to the less stringent standard of proof under the Code of Student Life judicial procedures (i.e., the preponderance of evidence), a student accused but not convicted of a crime following a trial is still subject to University disciplinary action if found responsible of violating the Code of Student Life by a Judicial Administrator or Hearing Officer.

11. Minimum Sanctions for Violations of the University Alcohol and Drug Policies

Because of the threat to the health and safety of our students, the University has established mandatory minimum sanctions for alcohol and drug violations.

Alcohol and drug violations, both on and off-campus, shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Alcohol

- Possession of alcohol under the legal age (PAULA)
- Public intoxication
- Manufacture, use, or possession of false identification
- Alcohol related trip to an Emergency Room
- Operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated (OWI)
- Involvement in a crime while under the influence of alcohol
- Possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages in University Residence Halls, fraternity houses, or sorority houses
- Possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages on University property outdoors or in other public areas of campus

Drug

- Possession of a controlled substance
- Possession of drug paraphernalia
- Driving under the influence of drugs
- Drug trafficking
- Involvement in a crime while under the influence of drugs

Steps

Sanctions usually begin at Step 1 and are progressive in nature. However, the type of violation or circumstances may modify the sanctions. The modification may result in more severe or lenient sanctions.

Because of the serious and potentially life-threatening consequences, Operating under the influence (OWI) or a trip to the Emergency Room with a Blood Alcohol Content equal to or greater than .20 will automatically be considered to be 2nd step offenses. Possession of marijuana over 10 grams and other illegal drug offenses also normally result in 2nd step sanctions, except for drug trafficking offenses which are considered 3rd step offenses. If a student has been suspended after reaching the 3rd step and is readmitted to The University of Iowa, the student is readmitted at the 2nd step.

1st Step

- Parent/Guardian notification, if the student is under 21.
- Satisfactory completion of a defined alcohol education program.
- Assignment to meet with Critical MASS advisor.
- Disciplinary Warning.

2nd Step

- Parent/Guardian notification with a follow-up telephone call, if the student is under 21.
- Satisfactory completion of a recommended alcohol or drug counseling program.
- Disciplinary Probation for remainder of current semester and the following two semesters (Fall or Spring) enrolled at the University. Probation extends through any intervening summer terms, inter-sessions, and/or any institutional breaks.
- Ordinarily, cancellation of a student's Housing contract if the student lives in a residence hall.

3rd Step

- Parent/Guardian notification, if the student is under 21.
- Suspension from the University for at least one complete Fall or Spring semester following the suspension's effective date, including any intervening summer terms or inter-sessions. The Dean of Students may elect for the suspension to take effect immediately or to take effect upon completion of the current semester or term.

Removal and Deferral of Steps

Any student disciplinary record is maintained in the Office of the Dean of Students as described in Section 10 above.

Students who have received a 1st step sanction may request that the step and the record be removed from their student disciplinary file. A request must be made in writing to the Dean of Students. In order to be eligible to have the step removed, the student must meet the following criteria and present supporting documentation:

- It has been at least 12 months since the disposition of the offense by the University.
- The student has not received any additional Code of Student Life charges or any alcohol or drug related offenses on or off campus in the past 12 months.
- The student completed all sanctions required by the University and, if applicable, the court having jurisdiction over the matter.

Removal of a 1st step is at the sole discretion of the Dean of Students. Additionally, this opportunity for a student to have the 1st step removed does not apply to violations which may have resulted in a sanction above the 1st step.

At the discretion of the Dean of Students, a student receiving a PAULA or similar violation may be granted a deferred 1st step. A deferred 1st step will not be considered an "offense" and will not be maintained as a disciplinary record. However, a letter may be sent to the student's parents notifying them of the violation. If the student receives another alcohol offense of any nature, within a 12-month period, the deferral of the 1st step may be revoked and the second alcohol offense may be considered a 2nd step violation. Moreover, students are only entitled to one deferred step during their attendance at the University.

12. Responsible Action Protocol (aka Good Samaritan Policy)

The health and safety of its students is of primary concern to the University of Iowa. The UI is aware that students are sometimes reluctant to seek medical attention in alcohol and drug related emergencies out of fear they may face University sanctions related to possessing or consuming alcohol or drugs. Because these emergencies are potentially life-threatening, the University of Iowa wants to do what it can to reduce barriers that prevent students from seeking assistance.

University staff members are available to provide medical assistance to students whose health is at risk due to excessive consumption of alcohol and/or drug abuse. When someone is in danger, a student should not hesitate to contact a staff member or to call 9-1-1. In most situations, administrators will not impose disciplinary sanctions on the caller or on the impaired student if timely action is taken to alert emergency personnel.

The Responsible Action Protocol

A student who calls for or seeks emergency assistance on his/her own behalf or on behalf of a student experiencing an alcohol or other drug related emergency will not, in most cases, be subject to status sanctions such as disciplinary probation or suspension under the Code of Student Life. However, the Dean of Students may require completion of alcohol and/or other drug education/counseling. The dean may also notify the student's parents of the alcohol or drug violation.

Scope of Protocol

1. The Responsible Action Protocol applies to students who seek and obtain emergency assistance on their own behalf or on the behalf of another student for a medical emergency related to consumption of drugs and/or alcohol. When a student calls on behalf of an impaired individual and remains with that individual until medical assistance arrives, the caller may not be subject to disciplinary action for violating University alcohol and/or drug rules so long as the caller cooperates with emergency responders.
2. An "emergency" communication is a timely contact with 9-1-1 or University Housing staff when those staff members are not yet aware of the situation. The Responsible Action Protocol does not apply to individuals who telephone friends for assistance, for example, or who experience an alcohol or drug-related emergency that is first discovered by University employees or public safety officials.
3. In most cases, neither the student requiring emergency assistance nor an individual or group who assists will be subject to punitive University disciplinary action. This protocol does not excuse or protect those who flagrantly or repeatedly violate the Code of Student Life and the University Housing Guidebook in regard to alcohol or illegal drug use.
4. The Responsible Action Protocol does not apply if the caller purchased, supplied, or otherwise made available the alcohol or other drug to the student needing medical assistance.
5. If a representative of an organization hosting an event calls for medical assistance, this act of responsibility may mitigate potential judicial consequences that could arise against the organization (i.e., the fact that an organization representative sought help may be considered in potential sanctioning of the organization for policy violations).
6. The protocol applies ONLY to the Code of Student Life and to the University Housing Guidebook. Law enforcement agencies enforcing the laws enacted by the State of Iowa within their jurisdictions, including

University of Iowa Police, are not bound by this protocol.

7. The Responsible Action Protocol applies only to alcohol and other drug-related medical emergencies. It does not apply to other prohibited behavior such as disorderly conduct (including physical or verbal abuse), property damage, or distribution of illicit substances.

8. In those cases where a student has been a victim of sexual misconduct while under the influence of alcohol, the Dean of Students will not pursue disciplinary violations against the student (or against a witness) for his or her improper use of alcohol or drugs (e.g., underage drinking) if the student is making a good faith report of sexual misconduct. A student who is under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time of a sexual misconduct incident should not be reluctant to seek assistance for that reason. In addition, law enforcement authorities in Johnson County have a policy of not pursuing charges for improper use of alcohol against a victim of sexual assault.

Requirements of Protocol

Students considered for the Responsible Action Protocol are required to meet with an administrator from the Office of the Dean of Students or University Housing following the incident. When one student seeks emergency assistance on behalf of another student, both students may be required to meet with the administrator. After evaluating the situation, the administrator may refer either or both students to a substance abuse specialist for assessment, education, and/or possible referral for treatment. Students who are referred for substance abuse counseling, but fail to meet with the counselor and/or fail to complete the recommendations, will be subject to disciplinary action.

Non-emergency referrals for substance abuse counseling are always confidential. Counselors and hospital staff will not disclose the name of a student who has sought counseling assistance to individuals outside of the campus health centers without permission from the student.

Even if disciplinary action is not taken, the Dean of Students reserves the right to notify the student's parents, per standard practice. In accordance with the Discipline Records Management protocol, a case file will be maintained for reference should subsequent alcohol or other drug violations occur. In those subsequent cases, administrators will take into account the previous emergency incident when considering sanctions. Academic transcripts will not reflect the incident.

Good Samaritan Provision

University of Northern Iowa Student Conduct Code

The health and safety of our students is of the highest priority. At times students may need immediate medical or other professional assistance. However, students may be reluctant to get help because of concerns that their own behavior may be a violation of the student conduct code. To minimize any hesitation students or student organizations may have in obtaining help due to these concerns, the University has enacted the following “good samaritan” provision.

Students who seek medical assistance for themselves or another person who is intoxicated due to alcohol and/or drugs will not be subject to university disciplinary action, except when it has been determined that another violation of university policy has occurred (for example destruction of university property; fire safety violation; physical harm to another person, etc.). This includes an alleged victim of sexual misconduct or another student who shares information as either a witness to or as a reporter of sexual misconduct as long as the report is made in good faith. In order for this policy to apply, the student must agree to complete any and all recommended educational programming or other treatment recommended by the Dean of Students or a Student Conduct Administrator.

Examples where this policy would apply include:

1. A student is reluctant to call an ambulance when a friend becomes unconscious following excessive consumption of alcohol because the reporting student is under the age of 21 and was also consuming alcohol.
2. A student is reluctant to report that he/she has been sexually assaulted because he/she had been consuming alcohol and is under the age of 21.

Any exemption from disciplinary action granted under this policy may only apply to disciplinary action and/or sanctions under the Student Conduct Code and does not apply to any criminal action taken by law enforcement, such as issuing a citation or making an arrest.

While this provision applies to individual students, if an organization has been found in violation of the Student Conduct Code, then the organization’s willingness to seek medical assistance for a guest may be viewed as a mitigating factor if or when sanctions are issued.

Medical Amnesty Policy (MAP)

It is imperative that someone calls for medical assistance when an individual experiences severe intoxication or a serious injury after consuming alcohol or other substances. People may be reluctant to seek help in such alcohol or other substance related emergencies because of potential judicial consequences for themselves or the person in need of assistance. Since these emergencies are potentially life threatening, the Medical Amnesty Policy reduces or eliminates disciplinary consequences for students who obtain medical help for an intoxicated student or guest or even for themselves.

This policy is part of Washington College's comprehensive approach to reducing harmful consequences caused by the consumption of alcohol or other drugs. The Medical Amnesty Policy represents the College's commitment to increasing the likelihood that community members will call for medical assistance when faced with an alcohol or substance-related emergency. The Medical Amnesty Policy also provides education for individuals who receive emergency medical attention to reduce the likelihood of future occurrences.

How does the Medical Amnesty Policy work?

The Medical Amnesty Policy reduces or eliminates disciplinary consequences when medical help is obtained for an intoxicated student as follows:

Person in need of medical attention

If an individual who receives emergency medical attention related to his or her consumption of alcohol or other substances completes a required educational follow-up at Health Services and/or with the Director of Student Development he or she will not be subject to judicial action for the following policy violations should they occur at the time of the emergency:

- underage consumption and/or possession of alcohol and illegal drugs
- disorderly conduct

A person in need of medical attention is eligible for medical amnesty on more than one occasion.

Calling on behalf of someone else

An individual who calls for emergency assistance on behalf of a person experiencing an alcohol-or other substance related emergency would not be subject to judicial action for the following policy violations should they occur at the time of the emergency:

- underage consumption and/or possession of alcohol
- provision of alcohol to an underage person

Frequently Asked Questions: UF Medical Amnesty Policy (MAP)

What Is the Purpose of the Medical Amnesty Policy?

The University of Florida is committed to promoting a safe and healthy environment for all students. The Medical Amnesty Policy is designed to encourage students to make responsible decisions and seek prompt, professional, medical assistance and treatment in serious or life-threatening situations that result from alcohol and/or other drug abuse such as alcohol poisoning or drug overdose. MAP seeks to diminish fear of disciplinary and conduct sanctions in such situations and to encourage individuals and organizations to seek needed medical attention for students in distress from alcohol and drug use.

How Does the Medical Amnesty Policy Work?

In serious or life-threatening situations, particularly where alcohol poisoning or drug overdose is suspected or where other medical treatment is reasonably believed to be appropriate, students are asked to take the following steps:

- Call 911.
- Stay with the person needing assistance until help arrives.
- Be prepared to give the emergency medical personnel as much information as possible including the amount and type of alcohol or substances consumed.

If a student is so intoxicated s/he is unable to be awakened, letting that person "sleep it off" is not a reasonable alternative to getting him/her the necessary medical help.

What Happens After Medical Help Is Provided?

The following next steps outline the process after medical help is provided to students in need of medical attention as a result of alcohol and/or drug use:

1. The situation is first evaluated by the Dean of Students Office to determine if the Medical Amnesty Policy applies.
2. If the situation qualifies, students are required to meet with a staff member at the GatorWell Health Promotion Services office.
3. The staff member, after evaluating the situation, may also refer the student to a substance abuse specialist for assessment, counseling, and/or possible referral for treatment.

Students who are referred but fail to meet and complete the recommendations in their entirety may be subject to additional requirements after an opportunity to meet with a staff member from the Dean of Students Office.

Will My Parents Find Out?

Possibly, but not necessarily. If a registered student is transported to an emergency medical treatment center for alcohol or drug use, the student's parents or guardians may be notified by a phone call from the Dean of Students Office if necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other individuals.

Does the Medical Amnesty Policy Protect Students from Police or Legal Actions?

No. The Medical Amnesty Policy only applies to the UF Student Code of Conduct, Housing & Residence Education Community Standards, and Greek Life policies. It does not prevent or preclude police or other legal actions.

Will Incidents Involving the Medical Amnesty Policy Be on My Academic Record?

No. Medical Amnesty Policy incidents will not be entered on the student's official academic record.

Does the Medical Amnesty Policy Cover Student Groups and Organizations?

If a representative of a UF student organization hosting an event calls for medical assistance, this act of responsibility might mitigate potential Student Conduct Code consequences, i.e., the fact that an organization sought help will be favorably considered in potential sanctioning for university policy violations.

UF student organizations involved in an incident must agree to take recommended steps to address concerns.

In appropriate situations as determined in the conduct process, mitigation could result in the requirement of participation in an educational program or educational activities rather than other disciplinary consequences.

What Does the Medical Amnesty Policy Apply To?

The Medical Amnesty Policy applies to the following situations:

- UF students who initiate and seek assistance and/or medical treatment on behalf of him- or herself, another student, or a friend experiencing an alcohol and/or other drug related emergency.
- UF students' use of alcohol or drugs where medical attention is needed.
- UF students who are a victim of sexual assault and have also engaged in underage alcohol consumption.

What Does the Medical Amnesty Policy NOT Apply To?

Other prohibited behavior such as illegal distribution of illicit substances, harassment, or assault.

Is There a Limit to the Number of Times the Medical Amnesty Policy Can Be Used?

No. Students are always encouraged to look after their friends and peers, and are encouraged to take responsible actions anytime they are necessary.

However, if a student is involved in repeat alcohol and/or drug abuse incidents, the following will occur:

1. The situation will be evaluated by the Dean of Students Office and/or the Coordinator of Residential Judicial Programs to determine if the student qualifies for medical amnesty.
2. The availability of medical amnesty for students with repetitive violations will be determined on a case by case basis.
3. Situations will be handled through the regular conduct process and will be considered for sanctioning purposes if a student does not demonstrate a commitment to the recommended steps and is involved in repetitive alcohol and/or drug abuse incidents.

What Other Institutions Have Implemented a Similar Policy?

Several universities have created and implemented either a Medical Amnesty Policy or a Good Samaritan Policy. These institutions include but are not limited to: Cornell University, University of Toledo, University of Pennsylvania, Emory University, Tulane University, Clemson University, Rollins College, Northwestern University, University of Georgia, University of Kansas, Ohio State University, University of Texas at Austin, and University of Virginia.

What Is Alcohol Poisoning?

Alcohol poisoning is another term for an alcohol overdose, which may occur when individuals consume so much alcohol that their bodies can no longer process it fast enough. Alcohol poisoning and overdoses are potentially lethal; the human body simply cannot tolerate or process excessive amounts of alcohol. Too many college students have died as a result of alcohol poisoning.

What Are the Signs or Symptoms of Alcohol Poisoning or Overdose?

The signs or symptoms of alcohol poisoning include (not all of these need to be present):

- Confusion or stupor
- Vomiting while passed out, not waking up after vomiting, or incoherent while vomiting
- Seizures
- Breathing is slow (less than 8 breaths per minute) or irregular, with 10 seconds or more between breaths
- Weak pulse, very rapid pulse, or very slow pulse
- Cold, clammy, pale or bluish skin
- Loss of consciousness: Inability to awaken a person with loud shouting, or inability of a person to remain awake for more than 2-3 minutes or to carry on a coherent conversation when awake (semi-conscious)

*A person who has lost consciousness and cannot be awakened is in danger of dying. Help is needed immediately.

How Do I Help a Friend Who Might Be Experiencing Alcohol Poisoning or Overdose?

1. Call 911. Then (if you are in the residence halls) call or send someone else to notify your RA on duty, but don't leave the person alone.
2. Stay with the person until emergency help arrives.

3. Be prepared to give the emergency medical personnel as much information as possible including the amount and type of alcohol or substances consumed.

What Should I NOT Do When Helping Someone Experiencing Alcohol Poisoning or Overdose?

- Do not hesitate to call 911. The person's life is in danger. Better to be safe than sorry.
- Do not leave the person alone. The person may seem to be okay, but the alcohol ingested may take some time to be absorbed before peak levels are reached in the brain.
- Do not try to give the person anything to eat or drink.
- Do not put the person in a cold shower. The person could fall or the shock could make him/her pass out.
- Don't just let him or her "sleep it off."

Amnesty Policy

Student health and safety are of primary concern at the College. As such, in cases of extreme intoxication as a result of alcohol or other substances, the College encourages individuals to seek medical assistance for themselves or others. If an individual seeks medical attention due to a concern for health or safety as a result of consumption, the Dean of Students Office will not pursue student conduct sanctions against the student for violations of the Alcohol Beverage Policy or the Drug Policy. Additionally, those students who assist in obtaining medical attention for individuals who are intoxicated will not receive sanctions for violations of the Alcohol Beverage Policy or possession of drugs under the Drug Policy of the Student Code of Conduct.

This policy does not preclude sanctions due to any other violations of the Code of Conduct (not related to the Alcohol Beverage Policy or Drug Policy). Likewise, the Medical Amnesty Policy does not prevent action by police or other law enforcement personnel.

This policy does not grant amnesty for possession with intent to distribute drugs.

In lieu of sanctions, the intoxicated student, as well as the referring student(s), will be required to meet with a member of the Dean of Students staff who may issue educational requirements that may include, but are not limited to, alcohol and/or drug education, counseling, and/or a substance abuse assessment. Serious or repeated incidents will prompt a higher degree of concern/response. Failure to complete educational assignments or treatment recommendations issued under this policy normally will result in disciplinary action. The student will be responsible for any costs associated with drug or alcohol education interventions.

Application to Student Organizations:

In circumstances where an organization is found to be hosting an event where medical assistance is sought for an intoxicated guest, the organization (depending upon the circumstances) may be held responsible for violations of the Alcohol Policy or Drug Policy. However, the organization's willingness to seek medical assistance for a member or guest will be viewed as a mitigating factor in determining a sanction for any violations of the Alcohol Policy or Drug Policy.

Disclosure of Amnesty Incidents:

The College may disclose amnesty incidents if a student is requesting that their discipline record be shared with Study Abroad, the Student Conduct system, and Residence Life when considering applicants for employment.

- d. Lehigh University seeks to remove barriers that prevent students from seeking the medical attention they need.

II. POLICY

Note: This Policy only provides amnesty from violations of the Lehigh University Code of Conduct. It does not grant amnesty for criminal, civil, or legal consequences for violations of Federal, State, or Local law.

- a. Students who seek emergency medical attention for themselves related to consumption of drugs or alcohol will not be charged with violations of the Lehigh University Code of Conduct related to that consumption (specifically: Art III, Section V., A,B,C,D), provided that the student subsequently completes an evaluation and any recommended treatment at the University Counseling and Psychological Services center within a reasonable time frame to be determined by the Office of Student Conduct. Failure to complete this evaluation/treatment may result in charges being filed with the Office of Student Conduct.
- b. Students who seek emergency medical attention for someone else will not be charged with violations of the Lehigh University Code of Conduct related to consumption of alcohol or drugs (specifically: Art III, Section V., A,B,C,D), or intoxication, provided that the student subsequently completes an evaluation and any recommended treatment at the University Counseling and Psychological Services center within a reasonable time frame if determined necessary by the Office of Student Conduct.
- c. Student Organizations are required to seek immediate medical assistance for their members or guests when any potential health risk is observed, including medical emergencies related to the use of alcohol and/or drugs. A Student Organization that seeks immediate assistance from appropriate sources will not be charged with violations of the Lehigh University Social Policy or the Code of Conduct related to providing alcohol, providing that the organization completes any educational programming required by the Office of Student Conduct and the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Affairs. However, the organization can and will be held accountable for any other violations of the Code of Conduct related to the incident (e.g. endangering the health or safety of others, covered smoke detectors, etc.). Student Organizations that fail to seek immediate medical assistance for members or guests in need of attention will likely be charged with violations of the Code of Conduct and face dissolution or termination as the outcome of such charges. It is imperative that student organizations seek medical assistance for their members or guests in such an emergency situation.
- d. This Policy applies only to those students or organizations who seek emergency medical assistance in connection with an alcohol or drug-related medical emergency and does not apply to individuals experiencing an alcohol or drug-related medical emergency who are found by University employees. (i.e. University Police, Faculty, administrative staff, residence hall staff including gryphons)
- e. The Lehigh University Medical Amnesty Policy is not intended to shield or protect those students or organizations that repeatedly violate the Code of Conduct. In cases where repeated violations of the Lehigh University Code of Conduct occur, the University reserves the right to take judicial action on a case by case basis regardless of the manner in which the incident was reported. Additionally the University reserves the right to adjudicate any case in which the violations are egregious.
- f. The Office of Student Conduct reserves the right to contact any student to discuss an

Medical Amnesty Policy

The University Alcohol and Drug Policy Section II, paragraph A3

In cases of intoxication and/or alcohol poisoning, the primary concern is the health and safety of the individual(s) involved. Individuals are strongly encouraged to call for medical assistance (511 on campus, 911 off campus) for themselves or for a friend/acquaintance who is dangerously intoxicated.

No student seeking medical treatment for an alcohol or other drug-related overdose will be subject to University discipline for the sole violation of using or possessing alcohol or drugs. This policy shall extend to another student seeking help for the intoxicated student.

Tulane University Medical Amnesty Program

The Medical Amnesty Program (MAP) represents the University's commitment to increasing the likelihood that community members will call for medical assistance when faced with an alcohol or drug-related emergency. Every student, as a part of the Tulane University community, has a responsibility for care. In alcohol or drug related incidents, the primary concern of the University is the well-being, health, and safety of students.

Tulane University has an obligation to make mandatory administrative referrals of students for incidents related to alcohol and other drug-related emergencies. The potential for student conduct action by the University against the student in need of medical attention and/or the student reporting the incident may act as a barrier to students getting the immediate medical attention they need. In order to alleviate the behavioral consequences associated with these alcohol and other drug-related emergencies, and increase the likelihood that students will get the medical attention they need, the University has developed a Medical Amnesty Program. This policy applies to all students who call on behalf of another student and students who are in need of immediate medical assistance including being transported by EMS (either Tulane EMS or New Orleans EMS).

In order to receive Medical Amnesty, students must use the policy proactively. This means that students must take the initiative to get assistance and that asking for medical amnesty after being confronted for possible alcohol or drug policy violations will not result in application of MAP.

In addition, this policy does not prevent action by police or other law enforcement personnel.

Medical Amnesty Program

In order for medical amnesty to be granted, a student or representative from an organization hosting an event is expected to promptly call TUPD dispatch for medical assistance in an alcohol or drug-related emergency. There is no limit to the number of times a student can receive medical amnesty.

For the Student in Need of Medical Attention

A student in need of medical attention will not be subject to student conduct charges for the following Code of Student Conduct violations:

- III.B.4 – Unauthorized use and/or possession of any controlled substance or illegal drug
- III.B.6 – Use, possession, or distribution of alcoholic beverages in violation of the Tulane Alcohol Beverage Policy.

However, medical amnesty does not preclude students from the following:

1. Being charged with other violations of the Code of Student Conduct related to the incident (e.g., property damage, physical violence, disorderly conduct, or being in possession of false identification), or
2. Being required to meet with a Student Affairs professional and to complete the BASICS (Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students) program and/or other appropriate administrative referral.

Failure to meet with a Student Affairs professional and/or complete the BASICS program or other appropriate administrative referral will not result in conduct charges. However, other penalties, including but not limited to fines, blocked registration, and/or parental notification, will be levied until the student completes all requirements.

A student transported by EMS for alcohol or drug-related emergency will be required to meet with a Student Affairs professional and must complete the BASICS program and/or other appropriate administrative referral. There is an assessment fee for the BASICS program (which the student will be responsible for paying) and the student will have a required time frame by which to complete the program or referral. If additional follow up is required by the Student Affairs professional, the student must also complete those requirements in order to be in compliance. In no case will these additional penalties result in a student conduct case for the student.

A student who is not transported by EMS will be required to meet with a Student Affairs professional and may be referred to the BASICS program.

There is no limit to the number of times a student can receive medical attention and be immune from the Code of Student Conduct violations mentioned above.

For the Caller

A student who calls for medical assistance on behalf of someone else will not be subject to student conduct sanctions for the following Code of Student Conduct violations in relation to the incident:

- III.B.4 – Unauthorized use and/or possession of any controlled substance or illegal drug
- III.B.6 – Use, possession, or distribution of alcoholic beverages in violation of the Tulane Alcohol Beverage Policy

However, medical amnesty does not preclude the caller from being charged with other violations of the Code of Student Conduct related to the incident (e.g., property damage, physical violence, disorderly conduct, or being in possession of false identification).

There is no limit to the number of times a student can call on behalf of someone else who needs medical attention and be immune from the Code of Student Conduct violations mentioned above.

For the Organization

A representative of a student organization hosting an event is expected to call for medical assistance in an alcohol or other drug-related emergency. In this circumstance, the organization hosting the event and the caller who called for medical assistance on behalf someone else will not be subject to student conduct charges for the following Code of Student Conduct violations in relation to the incident:

- III.B.4 – Unauthorized use and/or possession of any controlled substance or illegal drug
- III.B.6 – Use, possession, or distribution of alcoholic beverages in violation of the Tulane Alcohol Beverage Policy

However, medical amnesty does not preclude organization from the following:

1. Being charged with other violations of the Code of Student Conduct related to the incident (e.g., hosting an unregistered event, providing alcohol to a minor, hazing, etc), or
2. Being required to meet with a Student Affairs professional in regards to education about appropriate alcohol use and university policies.

Medical amnesty only applies to an organization if medical assistance is requested at the event. If a student leaves the event and medical assistance is rendered later, the organization does not qualify for medical amnesty and faces all possible student conduct charges.

FAQs about Medical Amnesty

What is an alcohol or drug-related emergency?

A drug or alcohol related emergency is defined as any person whose health status is potentially at risk due to the intake of drugs or alcohol. This includes but is not limited to excessive vomiting, seizures, disorientation, or unresponsiveness.

Does this mean that Tulane University encourages students to drink?

No. Tulane University recognizes a student's safety and well being can be compromised due to excessive use of alcohol and/or other drugs. The medical amnesty program was put into place so a student can get the required medical emergency attention without fear of "getting in trouble" or the incident appearing on the student's conduct record.

So are EMS calls for medical assistance really confidential if Student Affairs is notified?

A call for medical assistance includes a response from TUPD as well. TUPD is required to write a report based on what the officer observes, not information received from EMS personnel.

Will my parents find out?

As a general rule, your parents will not be notified. However, your parents may be notified if your alcohol or drug-related emergency is life threatening and/or you fail to meet with a Student Affairs professional and/or complete the BASICS program

What is BASICS?

Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students (BASICS) is a harm reduction approach to alcohol consumption that ultimately focuses on reducing the risky behaviors and harmful consequences associated with drinking alcohol. BASICS was specifically designed for college students 18 to 24 years old and is non-confrontational and non-judgmental. BASICS consists of two 50 minute sessions with a trained professional staff member. The first session, which takes place with a small group, will be an opportunity for the student to meet the BASICS facilitator and take an online assessment. Two weeks later the student will return to meet individually with the facilitator during which time they will discuss the results from the online assessment, examine their current alcohol use and have the opportunity to create personal goals for the future.

Read first time 01/26/09. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

1 AN ACT Relating to drug overdose prevention; amending RCW
2 18.130.180; reenacting and amending RCW 9.94A.535; adding a new section
3 to chapter 69.50 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 18.130 RCW; and 4 creating a new section.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature intends to save lives by 7 increasing timely medical attention to drug overdose victims through 8 the establishment of limited immunity from prosecution for people who 9 seek medical assistance in a drug overdose situation. Drug overdose is 10 the leading cause of unintentional injury death in Washington state,
11 ahead of motor vehicle related deaths. Washington state is one of 12 sixteen states in which drug overdoses cause more deaths than traffic
13 accidents. Drug overdose mortality rates have increased significantly 14 since the 1990s, according to the centers for disease control and 15 prevention, and illegal and prescription drug overdoses killed more 16 than thirty-eight thousand people nationwide in 2006, the last year for 17 which firm data is available. The Washington state department of 18 health reports that in 1999, unintentional drug poisoning was 19 responsible for four hundred three deaths in this state; in 2007, the

1 number had increased to seven hundred sixty-one, compared with six
2 hundred ten motor vehicle related deaths that same year. Many drug
3 overdose fatalities occur because peers delay or forego calling 911 for 4 fear of arrest or police involvement, which researchers continually
5 identify as the most significant barrier to the ideal first response of 6 calling emergency services.

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW
8 to read as follows:

9 (1)(a) A person acting in good faith who seeks medical assistance
10 for someone experiencing a drug-related overdose shall not be charged
11 or prosecuted for possession of a controlled substance pursuant to RCW
12 69.50.4013, or penalized under RCW 69.50.4014, if the evidence for the 13 charge of possession of a controlled substance was obtained as a result
14 of the person seeking medical assistance.

15 (b) A person acting in good faith may receive a naloxone
16 prescription, possess naloxone, and administer naloxone to an 17 individual suffering from an apparent opiate-related overdose.

18 (2) A person who experiences a drug-related overdose and is in need
19 of medical assistance shall not be charged or prosecuted for possession
20 of a controlled substance pursuant to RCW 69.50.4013, or penalized
21 under RCW 69.50.4014, if the evidence for the charge of possession of 22 a controlled substance was obtained as a result of the overdose and the 23 need for medical assistance.

24 (3) The protection in this section from prosecution for possession
25 crimes under RCW 69.50.4013 shall not be grounds for suppression of 26 evidence in other criminal charges.

27 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 18.130 RCW
28 to read as follows:

29 The administering, dispensing, prescribing, purchasing,
30 acquisition, possession, or use of naloxone shall not constitute 31 unprofessional conduct under chapter 18.130 RCW, or be in violation of 32 any provisions under this chapter, by any practitioner or person, if 33 the unprofessional conduct or violation results from a good faith
34 effort to assist:

35 (1) A person experiencing, or likely to experience, an opiate-
36 related overdose; or

1 (2) A family member, friend, or other person in a position to
2 assist a person experiencing, or likely to experience, an opiate-
3 related overdose.

4 Sec. 4. RCW 9.94A.535 and 2008 c 276 s 303 and 2008 c 233 s 9 are 5 each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

6 The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range
7 for an offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter,
8 that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an 9 exceptional sentence. Facts supporting aggravated sentences, other 10 than the fact of a prior conviction, shall be determined pursuant to 11 the provisions of RCW 9.94A.537.

12 Whenever a sentence outside the standard sentence range is imposed,
13 the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written 14 findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the 15 standard sentence range shall be a determinate sentence.

16 If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside
17 the standard sentence range should be imposed, the sentence is subject
18 to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.585(4).

19 A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.589 (1) and (2)
20 governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or 21 concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in 22 this section, and may be appealed by the offender or the state as set
23 forth in RCW 9.94A.585 (2) through (6).

24 (1) Mitigating Circumstances - Court to Consider

25 The court may impose an exceptional sentence below the standard
26 range if it finds that mitigating circumstances are established by a 27 preponderance of the evidence. The following are illustrative only and 28 are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

29 (a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing 30 participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

31 (b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good
32 faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any 33 damage or injury sustained.

34 (c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion,
35 threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but 36 which significantly affected his or her conduct.

1 (d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was
2 induced by others to participate in the crime.

3 (e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his 4 or her conduct, or to conform his or her conduct to the requirements of 5 the law, was significantly impaired. Voluntary use of drugs or alcohol
6 is excluded.

7 (f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and 8 the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the 9 safety or well-being of the victim.

10 (g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.589
11 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of 12 the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

13 (h) The defendant or the defendant's children suffered a continuing 14 pattern of physical or sexual abuse by the victim of the offense and 15 the offense is a response to that abuse.

16 (i) The defendant was making a good faith effort to obtain or 17 provide medical assistance for someone who is experiencing a drug-
18 related overdose.

19 (2) Aggravating Circumstances - Considered and Imposed by the Court
20 The trial court may impose an aggravated exceptional sentence
21 without a finding of fact by a jury under the following circumstances:

22 (a) The defendant and the state both stipulate that justice is best
23 served by the imposition of an exceptional sentence outside the 24 standard range, and the court finds the exceptional sentence to be 25 consistent with and in furtherance of the interests of justice and the 26 purposes of the sentencing reform act.

27 (b) The defendant's prior unscored misdemeanor or prior unscored
28 foreign criminal history results in a presumptive sentence that is 29 clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as 30 expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

31 (c) The defendant has committed multiple current offenses and the 32 defendant's high offender score results in some of the current offenses
33 going unpunished.

34 (d) The failure to consider the defendant's prior criminal history
35 which was omitted from the offender score calculation pursuant to RCW
36 9.94A.525 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too
37 lenient.

1 (3) Aggravating Circumstances - Considered by a Jury -Imposed by
2 the Court

3 Except for circumstances listed in subsection (2) of this section,
4 the following circumstances are an exclusive list of factors that can 5 support a sentence above the standard range. Such facts should be 6 determined by procedures specified in RCW 9.94A.537.

7 (a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current
8 offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

9 (b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the 10 current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance.

11 (c) The current offense was a violent offense, and the defendant
12 knew that the victim of the current offense was pregnant.

13 (d) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of 14 offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following
15 factors:

16 (i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple 17 incidents per victim;

18 (ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss
19 substantially greater than typical for the offense;

20 (iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication
21 or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time; or

22 (iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence,
23 or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current
24 offense.

25 (e) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform
26 Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to 27 trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the 28 typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of 29 the following may identify a current offense as a major VUCSA:

30 (i) The current offense involved at least three separate 31 transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or 32 possessed with intent to do so;

33 (ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or 34 transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger 35 than for personal use;

36 (iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled
37 substances for use by other parties;

1 (iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender
2 to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy;

3 (v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or 4 planning, occurred over a lengthy period of time, or involved a broad 5 geographic area of disbursement; or

6 (vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate 7 the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust,
8 confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or 9 other medical professional).

10 (f) The current offense included a finding of sexual motivation
11 pursuant to RCW 9.94A.835.

12 (g) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of sexual abuse of 13 the same victim under the age of eighteen years manifested by multiple 14 incidents over a prolonged period of time.

15 (h) The current offense involved domestic violence, as defined in 16 RCW 10.99.020, and one or more of the following was present:

17 (i) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of psychological,
18 physical, or sexual abuse of the victim manifested by multiple
19 incidents over a prolonged period of time;

20 (ii) The offense occurred within sight or sound of the victim's or 21 the offender's minor children under the age of eighteen years; or

22 (iii) The offender's conduct during the commission of the current 23 offense manifested deliberate cruelty or intimidation of the victim.

24 (i) The offense resulted in the pregnancy of a child victim of 25 rape.

26 (j) The defendant knew that the victim of the current offense was 27 a youth who was not residing with a legal custodian and the defendant
28 established or promoted the relationship for the primary purpose of 29 victimization.

30 (k) The offense was committed with the intent to obstruct or impair
31 human or animal health care or agricultural or forestry research or 32 commercial production.

33 (l) The current offense is trafficking in the first degree or 34 trafficking in the second degree and any victim was a minor at the time
35 of the offense.

36 (m) The offense involved a high degree of sophistication or 37 planning.

1 (n) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or
2 fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current
3 offense.

4 (o) The defendant committed a current sex offense, has a history of 5 sex offenses, and is not amenable to treatment.

6 (p) The offense involved an invasion of the victim's privacy.

7 (q) The defendant demonstrated or displayed an egregious lack of 8 remorse.

9 (r) The offense involved a destructive and foreseeable impact on 10 persons other than the victim.

11 (s) The defendant committed the offense to obtain or maintain his 12 or her membership or to advance his or her position in the hierarchy of 13 an organization, association, or identifiable group.

14 (t) The defendant committed the current offense shortly after being 15 released from incarceration.

16 (u) The current offense is a burglary and the victim of the 17 burglary was present in the building or residence when the crime was 18 committed.

19 (v) The offense was committed against a law enforcement officer who 20 was performing his or her official duties at the time of the offense, 21 the offender knew that the victim was a law enforcement officer, and 22 the victim's status as a law enforcement officer is not an element of 23 the offense.

24 (w) The defendant committed the offense against a victim who was 25 acting as a good samaritan.

26 (x) The defendant committed the offense against a public official
27 or officer of the court in retaliation of the public official's
28 performance of his or her duty to the criminal justice system.

29 (y) The victim's injuries substantially exceed the level of bodily
30 harm necessary to satisfy the elements of the offense. This aggravator
31 is not an exception to RCW 9.94A.530(2).

32 (z)(i)(A) The current offense is theft in the first degree, theft
33 in the second degree, possession of stolen property in the first 34 degree, or possession of stolen property in the second degree; (B) the 35 stolen property involved is metal property; and (C) the property damage 36 to the victim caused in the course of the theft of metal property is 37 more than three times the value of the stolen metal property, or the 38 theft of the metal property creates a public hazard.

1 (ii) For purposes of this subsection, "metal property" means
2 commercial metal property, private metal property, or nonferrous metal
3 property, as defined in RCW 19.290.010.

4 (aa) The defendant committed the offense with the intent to 5 directly or indirectly cause any benefit, aggrandizement, gain, profit,
6 or other advantage to or for a criminal street gang as defined in RCW
7 9.94A.030, its reputation, influence, or membership.

8 Sec. 5. RCW 18.130.180 and 2008 c 134 s 25 are each amended to 9 read as follows:

10 The following conduct, acts, or conditions constitute 11 unprofessional conduct for any license holder under the jurisdiction of 12 this chapter:

13 (1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude,
14 dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's 15 profession, whether the act constitutes a crime or not. If the act
16 constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a
17 condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon such a conviction, 18 however, the judgment and sentence is conclusive evidence at the 19 ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the license holder of the 20 crime described in the indictment or information, and of the person's 21 violation of the statute on which it is based. For the purposes of 22 this section, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of 23 guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction and all
24 proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended.
25 Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A
26 RCW;

27 (2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in 28 obtaining a license or in reinstatement thereof;

29 (3) All advertising which is false, fraudulent, or misleading;

30 (4) Incompetence, negligence, or malpractice which results in 31 injury to a patient or which creates an unreasonable risk that a
32 patient may be harmed. The use of a nontraditional treatment by itself
33 shall not constitute unprofessional conduct, provided that it does not 34 result in injury to a patient or create an unreasonable risk that a
35 patient may be harmed;

36 (5) Suspension, revocation, or restriction of the individual's 37 license to practice any health care profession by competent authority

1 in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction, a certified copy of the 2 order, stipulation, or agreement being conclusive evidence of the 3 revocation, suspension, or restriction;

4 (6) Except when authorized by section 3 of this act, the 5 possession, use, prescription for use, or distribution of controlled
6 substances or legend drugs in any way other than for legitimate or 7 therapeutic purposes, diversion of controlled substances or legend
8 drugs, the violation of any drug law, or prescribing controlled
9 substances for oneself;

10 (7) Violation of any state or federal statute or administrative 11 rule regulating the profession in question, including any statute or 12 rule defining or establishing standards of patient care or professional 13 conduct or practice;

14 (8) Failure to cooperate with the disciplining authority by:

15 (a) Not furnishing any papers, documents, records, or other items;

16 (b) Not furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation
17 covering the matter contained in the complaint filed with the 18 disciplining authority;

19 (c) Not responding to subpoenas issued by the disciplining
20 authority, whether or not the recipient of the subpoena is the accused 21 in the proceeding; or

22 (d) Not providing reasonable and timely access for authorized
23 representatives of the disciplining authority seeking to perform
24 practice reviews at facilities utilized by the license holder;

25 (9) Failure to comply with an order issued by the disciplining
26 authority or a stipulation for informal disposition entered into with 27 the disciplining authority;

28 (10) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice when a
29 license is required;

30 (11) Violations of rules established by any health agency;

31 (12) Practice beyond the scope of practice as defined by law or 32 rule;

33 (13) Misrepresentation or fraud in any aspect of the conduct of the 34 business or profession;

35 (14) Failure to adequately supervise auxiliary staff to the extent
36 that the consumer's health or safety is at risk;

STATE OF NEW YORK
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER
ALBANY 12224

CHAPTER # 154
APPROVAL # 4

JUL 20 2011

MEMORANDUM filed with Senate Bill Number 2063-C, entitled:

"AN ACT to amend the penal law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to prosecution of a person who, in good faith, seeks health care for someone who is experiencing a drug or alcohol overdose or other life threatening medical emergency"

APPROVED

By my approval of this bill, New York will adopt a "good Samaritan 911 law" to encourage witnesses and victims to seek medical assistance for persons who are experiencing drug overdoses. I have received compelling letters from parents whose children have died from a drug overdose or are struggling with drug addiction urging me to approve this bill. These letters, and other information provided to me, has convinced me that this new law will save lives. The statistics on overdose deaths in New York are startling. According to the New York Academy of Medicine, which has urged approval of this bill, accidental drug overdose is the fourth leading cause of death among adults in New York. Approximately 85% of overdose events occur in the company of others, but no medical assistance was sought in half of those cases and in only 14% of cases was calling an ambulance the first response to a peer's overdose.

Balanced against the bill's potential to save lives are the concerns of law enforcement agencies that will have to apply this new law. Under the new law, some persons who, in good faith, seek medical assistance for a person experiencing a drug overdose or other life-threatening medical emergency may receive relief from prosecution or conviction for certain drug crimes.

Some law enforcement agencies are apprehensive that police officers responding to a scene of a drug overdose where drugs are found could have difficulty determining whether anyone can legally be charged with an offense, and could be subject to civil liability for arresting someone who might later be determined to have this statutory exemption from prosecution. That would be a perverse and unacceptable result, and the removal of the word "arrest" from an earlier version of this bill was meant to give these responding officers the ability to detain individuals who may or may not be entitled to the statutory exemption from prosecution conferred by this bill in order to investigate all the facts and circumstances of any criminal conduct and seek guidance from the appropriate officials.

Some law enforcement agencies also are concerned that responding police officers may be expected to make on-the-spot decisions about whether someone was suffering from an overdose or genuinely in need of medical care, and whether the person who sought aid acted in good faith. I understand these apprehensions about this new law, and believe that it is critical to offer training to these officers to assist them in making these very difficult decisions. I have therefore asked the Division of Criminal Justice Services to work with law enforcement groups to ensure that appropriate training and guidance is provided to law enforcement personnel who will be making these difficult determinations.

Finally, some are concerned that the bill will enable criminals to manipulate the exemptions to avoid prosecution when it is warranted. This bill is not intended to provide an escape hatch for those predatory drug traffickers who entice our children to consume the very substances that cause their overdose. I believe that law enforcement personnel, prosecutors and the courts will be able to thwart such manipulation, but if it occurs, I urge the Legislature to amend the law to ensure that it can serve its salutary purpose of saving lives, while at the same time ensuring that the very criminals who prey on those addicted to drugs are properly punished.

I appreciate these law enforcement concerns, but I believe that the benefit to be gained by the bill – saving lives – must be paramount.

This bill is approved.

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to seeking or receiving health care for a drug or alcohol overdose

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. It is the intent of the legislature to encourage a witness
2 or victim of a drug or alcohol related overdose to call 911 or seek
3 other emergency assistance in order to save the life of an overdose
4 victim by establishing a state policy of protecting the witnesses or 5 victim from arrest, charge, prosecution, and conviction for drug
6 possession, drug paraphernalia possession, and certain alcohol related
7 offenses. It is not the intent of the legislature to protect individuals
8 from arrest, charge, or prosecution for other offenses, including drug
9 trafficking, or to interfere with law enforcement protocols to secure
10 the scene of an overdose.

11 S 2. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section
12 140.60 to read as follows:

13 S 140.60 WITNESS OR VICTIM OF DRUG OR ALCOHOL OVERDOSE.

14 1. DEFINITIONS. AS USED IN THIS SECTION THE FOLLOWING TERMS SHALL HAVE 15 THE FOLLOWING MEANINGS:

SENATE BILL 200

48TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - FIRST SESSION, 2007

INTRODUCED BY

Richard C. Martinez

AN ACT

RELATING TO CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES; PROVIDING LIMITED IMMUNITY FROM PROSECUTION FOR A PERSON WHO SEEKS OR OBTAINS MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR A DRUG-RELATED OVERDOSE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

Section 1. A new section of the Controlled Substances Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] OVERDOSE PREVENTION--LIMITED IMMUNITY.--

A. A person who, in good faith, seeks medical assistance for someone experiencing a drug-related overdose shall not be charged or prosecuted for possession of a controlled substance pursuant to the provisions of Section 30-31-23 NMSA 1978 if the evidence for the charge of possession of a controlled substance was gained as a result of the seeking of medical assistance.

1 B. A person who experiences a drug-related
2 overdose and is in need of medical assistance shall not be
3 charged or prosecuted for possession of a controlled substance
4 pursuant to the provisions of Section 30-31-23 NMSA 1978 if
5 the evidence for the charge of possession of a controlled
6 substance was gained as a result of the overdose and the need
7 for medical assistance.

8 C. The act of seeking medical assistance for 9 someone who is experiencing a drug-related overdose may be 10 used as a mitigating factor in a criminal prosecution pursuant 11 to the Controlled Substances Act."
