Senate Document # 11-12-41

Revisions to the School of Architecture, Planning, and Preservation (ARCH) Plan of Organization

April 2014

BACKGROUND

The University of Maryland Plan of Organization mandates that all Colleges and Schools be governed by a Plan of Organization that conforms to the stipulations set forth in Article 11 of the University of Maryland Plan of Organization. College and School Plans of Organization must be reviewed and approved by the University Senate for compliance. The Senate Elections, Representation, & Governance (ERG) Committee is the standing committee responsible for conducting these reviews. The Senate Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC) is responsible for reviewing the Appointment, Promotion, and Tenure (APT) Committee section of the Plan as part of the Senate review process. Any Plan of Organization under review that is determined not to be in compliance with Article 11 of the University of Maryland Plan of Organization is returned to the College or School for revision.

The School of Architecture, Planning, and Preservation (ARCH) submitted its revised Plan of Organization to the University Senate for review in June 2011.

COMMITTEE WORK

The ERG Committee began its review of the ARCH Plan of Organization in the fall of 2011. The committee reviewed the Plan in detail in October, and transmitted its comments to ARCH for review. ARCH reviewed the committee's comments and submitted a revised Plan in early 2012. The ERG Committee reviewed the newly-revised Plan in April, and voted electronically to approve the revised Plan on May 14, 2012.

In parallel with the review by the ERG Committee, the Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC) also completed a preliminary review of the APT section of the Plan in May 2012. The FAC reviewed the section, and pointed out discrepancies in the use of terminology referring to different faculty constituencies. It raised concerns related to the expectations for non-tenure track (NTT) faculty, and suggested consulting University policy to ensure that the Plan of Organization was in compliance with recent policy revisions.

In the 2012-2013 academic year, ARCH substantially revised its Plan of Organization and APT section to address concerns within the School related to the membership and procedures of the School Assembly and specific committees, and to respond to the FAC's comments on the APT section. After a great deal of revision, ARCH returned a revised APT section to the FAC in September 2013 for review. The FAC reviewed the section and a related document outlining the procedures and guidelines followed by the APT Committee. In its review, the FAC noted a few structural concerns related to the procedures and guidelines document. While the document was quite detailed, the FAC felt its contents could be more clearly organized, and made various suggestions to reorder the information provided. The FAC also made a few substantive recommendations, related to the procedures of the initial advisory subcommittee and the responsibilities of the APT Committee chair. The FAC sent its suggestions to ARCH in October 2013.

The FAC reviewed a revised APT section in February and March 2014. The revised section had been restructured as the FAC had previously suggested, and the committee agreed that it was much improved as a result. In reviewing the section, the FAC noted a few minor technical changes to be made, but felt that ARCH had addressed its substantive concerns appropriately in the revision. Therefore, the FAC approved the APT section, and sent ARCH a few additional suggestions for the School to consider as it finalized the document prior to further approval.

Also in February 2014, ARCH submitted a revised Plan of Organization to the ERG Committee for review. The ERG Committee reviewed the revisions to the Plan at its meeting on February 21, 2014, and raised structural and substantive concerns. The committee discussed at length the definitions in the revised Plan related to NTT faculty constituencies, and raised concerns on the alignment of faculty definitions with University policy. The committee also pointed out inconsistent terminology within the Plan, which caused confusion in identifying to which constituency certain provisions applied. In reviewing the organization of the Plan, the committee suggested that the constituency definitions be moved to the beginning of the Plan, and that consistent terminology be used throughout.

In reviewing the revised Plan, the ERG Committee also identified concerns with the stipulations related to faculty workload distribution plans. Members suggested that ARCH should review University and USM policy guidance on the appropriate weighting of workload for faculty. In relation to NTT faculty, the ERG Committee pointed out that while the ARCH Plan requires all faculty to have at least five percent level of effort in service activity, NTT faculty who are wholly funded on grant money may not be able to participate in service because of the restrictions of the grant. The committee requested that ARCH create an exception to the service requirement for these faculty.

The ERG Committee also discussed the quorum of the School Assembly and recognized that while the formula used to calculate quorum is unusual, the intent was to allow all NTT faculty to be members of the Assembly and vote. However, since these faculty often have difficulty in committing to attend Assembly meetings because of other commitments, ARCH determined that they should not be included in calculating a quorum. The ERG Committee agreed with the intent of the quorum provision, and made suggestions on revised language to make the provision more clear. After additional discussion, the committee voted unanimously to send its suggestions back to ARCH.

The ERG Committee received a response from ARCH in March 2014, and reviewed a newly-revised Plan of Organization at its meeting on March 14, 2014. The committee reviewed the provision on the service requirement in workload distribution plans in detail, and suggested further revisions. After discussion, the ERG Committee agreed that all of its other concerns had been addressed appropriately in the revised Plan, and voted unanimously to approve the Plan contingent upon the requested change in the workload distribution section being made.

Following the approval of the ERG and Faculty Affairs Committees, ARCH presented the revised Plan of Organization to its School Assembly for final approval. The Assembly voted to approve the Plan of Organization on March 31, 2014.

RECOMMENDATION

The ERG Committee recommends that the Senate approve the revised Plan of Organization of the School of Architecture, Planning, and Preservation (ARCH).
