Committee Work:	The ERG Committee consulted with each of the ombuds officers regarding their general responsibilities, the types of cases they typically handle, and any past experience with the Senate. The Faculty Ombuds Officer shared that her work as an ombuds officer and her extensive service in the Senate have informed one another, to the advantage of each. She cited several specific examples where both the Senate and her work benefitted, such as her efforts involving professional track faculty issues. The Undergraduate Ombuds Officer echoed the Faculty Ombuds Officer, explaining that her involvement with Senate committees, specifically the APAS and Educational Affairs Committees, has benefitted her work with students and the Senate's work on policy matters. However, she

Given this relationship, she suggested that an additional seat specifically for the ombuds officer would give the UGST excessive representation on the two committees. The Staff and Graduate Ombuds Officers each expressed skepticism regarding the value of their inclusion on a Senate committee, and both noted other campus bodies that are more relevant to their work, including University Human Resources and the Graduate Council, to which the Senate refers nearly all issues dealing with graduate students. After reviewing the charges of the Senate standing committees, the ERG Committee agreed that there was no single Senate committee that dealt with relevant issues extensively enough to merit the addition of either the Staff or Graduate Ombuds Officers. Given the Undergraduate Ombuds Officer is essentially a de facto member of the two relevant committees, and given the possibility of overrepresentation by UGST, ERG decided not to recommend the creation of a new ex-officio seat. The Faculty Ombuds Officer, however, has historically worked closely with the Faculty Affairs Committee, and many of the issues that come before the Faculty Ombuds Officer can be and have been addressed by policy changes that involve the Faculty Affairs Committee. As such, the ERG Committee voted to recommend creating an ex-officio seat on the Faculty Affairs Committee for the Faculty Ombuds Officer. While Senate practice is to give ex-officio committee members voting rights, the Faculty Ombuds Officer explained the importance of independence and impartiality to the work of an ombuds officer, and asked that the seat be non-voting. The committee agreed this is appropriate. The ERG Committee voted to recommend amendments to Article 6.7 of the Bylaws by an email vote concluding on February 8, 2017.

BACKGROUND

In fall 2016, a proposal was submitted to the Senate Executive Committee (SEC) requesting that the Senate create ex-officio seats for ombuds officers on appropriate Senate committees. On September 27, 2016, the Senate Executive Committee charged the Elections, Representation, & Governance (ERG) Committee with reviewing the current ex-officio membership of Senate standing committees, consulting with the Faculty, Staff, and Undergraduate and Graduate Student Ombuds Officers, and proposing changes to committee memberships, as appropriate (Appendix 1).

CURRENT PRACTICE

The Bylaws of the University Senate establish the regular and ex-officio membership of each standing committee. While all of the ombuds officers are non-voting, ex-officio members of the Senate, there are no ex-officio committee seats assigned to any ombuds officer. However, three of the current ombuds officers have recently served as ex-officio or regular members of Senate committees. The proposer—who is also the Faculty Ombuds Officer—has served on a range of Senate committees and task forces over the years, including terms as both a member and a chair of the Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC). The Undergraduate Ombuds Officer currently serves as an ex-officio member of the Educational Affairs Committee and the Academic Procedures and Standards (APAS) Committee (in both instances as the designee of the Associate Provost for Academic Affairs and Dean for Undergraduate Studies). The Graduate Ombuds Officer has served as an ex-officio member of APAS, the Educational Affairs Committee, and the Programs, Curricula, & Courses Committee (in all instances as the designee of the Associate Provost for Academic Affairs and Dean of the Graduate School).

COMMITTEE WORK

The ERG Committee began its work on the charge at its October 18, 2016, meeting, when it engaged in an initial discussion with the proposer, who is currently serving on ERG in a faculty seat. The committee then consulted with the Faculty, Staff, and Graduate Ombuds Officers at its meeting on November 7. The proposer explained that her perspective is informed by extensive service in the Senate and as an ombuds officer, and she noted that her experience in each role has informed her work with the other. She cited several specific examples of cases when her experience as ombuds officer was valuable to a committee and was improved by her experiences on the committee, such as her work with professional-track faculty issues.

The other officers shared with the ERG Committee their general responsibilities, the types of cases they typically handle, and their past experiences with the Senate. The Staff Ombuds Officer was not fully aware of the Senate's role in creating policies that affect staff. While open to the idea of joining a Senate committee, she was uncertain whether such service would benefit her work as an ombuds officer, given most of staff ombuds cases involve interpersonal disputes, rather than problems with policy. She also expressed concern about confidentiality being compromised if the Staff Ombuds Officer were to serve on a Senate committee. Similarly, the Graduate Ombuds Officer, who is more familiar with the Senate and its role, was skeptical of the value of ex-officio membership on a Senate committee to someone in his position, since much graduate student ombuds work deals with individual conflicts between faculty members and students.

The committee chair consulted separately with the Undergraduate Ombuds Officer. Echoing the Faculty Ombuds Officer, she explained that her role on the Senate's APAS and Educational Affairs Committees has benefitted both her work with students and the Senate's work on related policy matters. She recommended, however, that the Undergraduate Ombuds Officer not be given an ex-officio seat on the relevant Senate committees. The Undergraduate Ombuds Officer will always be an administrator within the Office of Undergraduate Studies, and there is every reason to expect that the Undergraduate Ombuds Officer will continue to be appointed by the Dean for Undergraduate Studies to serve on APAS and the Educational Affairs Committees. Given this relationship, she suggested that an additional seat specifically for the ombuds officer would give the Office of Undergraduate Studies too much representation on the two committees.

In considering representation for the ombuds officers, the committee reviewed the charges of the Senate standing committees. Given the responsibilities described by each ombuds officer, the ERG Committee agreed that there was no single committee that dealt with relevant issues extensively enough to merit the addition of either the Staff or Graduate Ombuds Officers, a perspective shared by the officers themselves. It noted that many aspects of the staff experience are addressed outside of the Senate and its committees, through the work of University Human Resources and in the collective bargaining agreements. Similarly, nearly all policies affecting graduate students are within the purview of the Graduate Council of the Graduate School, which the Graduate Ombuds Officer serves on in an ex-officio capacity. It further noted that the Undergraduate Ombuds Officer already is a de facto member of the two committees most relevant to the position, and agreed that creating a new ex-officio seat would lead to overrepresentation of the Office of Undergraduate Studies. The Faculty Ombuds Officer, however, has historically worked closely with the Faculty Affairs Committee, and many of the issues that come before the Faculty Ombuds Officer can be and have been addressed by policy changes that involve the FAC. As such, the committee voted to recommend creating an ex-officio seat on FAC for the Faculty Ombuds Officer.

The committee considered whether the new seat should be voting or non-voting. The Senate's parliamentary authority, Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, indicates that ex-officio members have all the privileges of regular members unless specifically noted in an organization's bylaws. Senate practice regarding committees accords with this, and ex-officio members of committees enjoy voting privileges unless the committee's membership explicitly denotes a non-voting role (though the Senate Bylaws specify that ex-officio members of the Senate itself do not vote). The Faculty Ombuds Officer, however, explained that independence and impartiality are fundamental to the work of ombuds officers, and asked that the seat be non-voting. The committee agreed, and determined that the seat should be non-voting. Given quorum for the FAC is nine voting members, the addition of a non-voting ex-officio seat does not necessitate a reconsideration of the quorum requirement.

The ERG Committee voted to recommend Article 6.7 of the Bylaws be amended by an email vote concluding on February 8, 2017

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Elections, Representation, & Governance Committee recommends that the Bylaws of the University Senate be amended to adjust the ex-officio membership of the Faculty Affairs Committee, as indicated in the revised Bylaws immediately following this report.

BYLAWS OF THE UNIVERSITY SENATE

The University of Maryland, College Park

ARTICLE 1 AUTHORIZATION

- 1.1 These Bylaws of the University Senate (hereafter referred to as the Bylaws) are adopted according to Article 7 of the University of Maryland Plan of Organization for Shared Governance (hereafter referred to as the Plan), and are subject to amendment as provided for in the Plan.

ARTICLE 2 MEMBERSHIP

- 2.1 The members of the Senate are as designated in Article 3 of the Plan and further specified in 2.1 and 2.2 below. All elected members are subject to the conditions stated in the Plan, including its provisions for expulsion, recall, and impeachment (Articles 4.10, 4.11, and 5.8 of the Plan and Article 2.3, 2.4, and 2.5 below).

2.1.a Staff Senators

For the purpose of Senate representation, the Staff Constituency is divided into the following categories. Each category shall elect one Senator from among its ranks for each 200 staff members or major fraction thereof.

1. Exempt Staff with appointment in Colleges, Schools, and Academic Affairs
2. Exempt Staff with appointment in Divisions
3. Non-Exempt Staff with appointment in Colleges, Schools, and Academic Affairs
4. Non-Exempt Staff with appointment in Divisions

- 2.1.b Staff member job categories will not include the category designated for the President, vice presidents, provosts, and deans if they hold faculty rank.

- 2.1.c Any individual within the faculty member voting constituency cannot be included in the staff member voting constituency or nominated for election as a staff Senator. Staff candidates for the Senate must have been employed at the University of Maryland College Park for 12 months prior to standing as candidates for the Senate. Staff members may not stand for Senate elections while in the probationary period of employment.

- 2.1.d An ex officio member denoted in the Plan (Article 3.6.a.) who is not precluded from staff member categories as noted in Articles 2.1.b and 2.1.c may be elected as a voting member of the Senate by an appropriate constituency. Such ex officio members should also have been employed by the University of Maryland College Park for 12 months prior to standing as candidates for the Senate.

- 2.1.e As noted in the Plan (Article 3.3.c), the term of each staff Senator shall be three (3) years. Terms of staff members will be staggered in such a way that for each term, one-third of the total members from a job category are serving the first year of their term. Not every member of a specific staff job category shall be elected in the same year. However, if the University or these Bylaws redefine the staff job categories outside of a normal reapportionment, the staff Senate seats will be vacated. A subsequent election will be held to populate all staff Senate seats within the new categories with staggered terms as follows:

- (1) One-third of the members in a job category who received the lowest number of votes will serve a one-year term,
- (2) One-third of the members in a job category who received the second lowest number of votes will serve two-year terms,
- (3) One-third of the members in a job category who received the highest number of votes will serve three year-terms.

A person serving less than a three-year term is defined as not to have served a full term and is eligible for re-election to a full term the following year.

2.2 Single Member Constituencies

The Senators defined in (a)-(g) below shall be voting members of the Senate. All elections held pursuant to this section shall be organized by the Office of the University Senate.

- (a) Part-Time Research, Part-Time Teaching, Adjunct, and both Full-Time and Part-Time Visiting Faculty who are not members of the Faculty Constituency as defined in Section 3.2 of the Plan shall together elect one (1) Senator, for a term of one (1) year, renewable for up to three (3) years. When the Senate votes by constituencies, that Senator shall have the same voting rights as a faculty Senator.
- (b) Emeritus Faculty who are not members of the Faculty Constituency as defined in Section 3.2 of the Plan shall elect one (1) Senator from among their ranks for a term of one (1) year, renewable for up to three (3) years. When the Senate votes by constituencies, that Senator shall have the same voting rights as a Faculty Senator.
- (c) Head Coaches who are not members of the Faculty Constituency as defined in Section 3.2 of the University Plan of Organization together shall elect one Senator from among their ranks to serve for a term of one (1) year, renewable for up to three (3) years. When the Senate votes by constituencies, that Senator shall have the same voting rights as a faculty Senator.
- (d) Post-Doctoral Scholars, Post-Doctoral Associates (formerly Research Associates), Junior Lecturers, and Faculty Assistants (formerly Faculty Research Assistants) who are not members of any Senate constituency as defined in Article 3 of the Plan together shall elect one (1) Senator, for a term of one (1) year, renewable for up to three (3) years. When the Senate votes by constituencies, that Senator shall have the same voting rights as a Faculty Senator.
- (e) The Contingent II staff shall elect one (1) Senator from among their ranks for a term of one (1) year, renewable for up to three (3) years. When the Senate votes by constituencies, that Senator shall have the same voting rights as all other staff Senators. The Contingent II staff Senator shall have been employed by the University for twelve months prior to their election.
- (f) The part-time undergraduate students shall elect one (1) Senator from among their ranks for a term of one (1) year, renewable for up to three (3) years. When the Senate votes by constituencies, that Senator shall have the same voting rights as all other student Senators.
- (g) The part-time graduate students shall elect one (1) Senator from among their ranks for a term of one (1) year, renewable for up to three (3) years. When the Senate votes by constituencies, that Senator shall have the same voting rights as all other student Senators.

2.3 Elected Senators shall not be absent from two (2) consecutive regularly scheduled meetings of the Senate without notifying the Office of the University Senate that they will require an excused absence (Article 4.10.a of the Plan). Also in accordance with Article 4.10 of the Plan, until the member attends a meeting of the Senate, or the Senator is expelled, that Senator shall be counted in the total membership when a quorum is defined for a meeting.

2.4 If an elected Senator is no longer a member of the constituency by which he or she was elected, the seat shall be vacated and the Senator shall be replaced according to the following guidelines:

- 2.4.a If there was a runner-up in the election in which the Senator was elected, the runner-up shall replace that Senator immediately, provided he or she is still eligible.
- 2.4.b If there was no runner-up in the election in which the Senator was elected and the vacancy occurs in the spring semester, that Senator shall serve for the remainder of the Senate year and shall be replaced in the next election cycle for the remainder of the term.
- 2.4.c If there was no runner-up in the election in which the Senator was elected and the vacancy occurs prior to the spring semester, or if the Senator is unable to serve the remainder of the Senate year, the Senate Executive Committee, in consultation with the appropriate constituency, shall appoint a replacement for that Senator.

- 2.5 If an elected Senator is no longer in satisfactory standing at the University, he or she shall be replaced immediately in accordance with 2.4.a or 2.4.c above.
- 2.6 All elections shall be completed by the Transition Meeting of the Senate.

 - (7) The Chair-Elect of the Senate shall serve as an ex officio member of the Library Council who will have voice but no vote.
- B. Qualifications of Library Council Members: Successful operation of the Library Council requires that the members of the Library Council understand the nature of the Libraries and represent the best interests of the campus as well as the particular interests of their specific constituencies.
1. The Library Council members should be chosen from people who can bring a campus-wide perspective to their deliberations on Library matters and who have shown interest and willingness to foster a good working relationship between the Libraries and their users.
 2. Library Council members should be selected to represent as broad a range of campus disciplines and interests as possible. Faculty members should include representatives from both the professional and arts and sciences colleges, and within these constituencies, representatives of the arts and humanities, social sciences, and physical and biological sciences.
- C. The Appointment Process: In the spring of each year, the Chair of the University Library Council shall notify the representative of the Office of the Senior Vice President and Provost and the Chair-Elect of the Senate of the appointments required for the following academic year. The representative of the Office of the Senior Vice President and Provost and the Chair-Elect of the Senate shall draw up a slate of nominees who will agree to serve, and the slate will be submitted to the Senior Vice President and Provost and the Committee on Committees for approval. The list of nominees for Library Council membership shall be submitted to the University Senate for approval. Ordinarily, the slate will be presented at the same Senate meeting at which other committee slates are approved. Dates of appointment and beginning of terms shall correspond with those of Senate committees. Replacement of Library Council members will take place through the same consultative process as the initial appointment, with submission of names to the Senate occurring as needed.
- 3. Operation of the Library Council: Effective and efficient Library Council operation will require adequate support and full cooperation among the Senate, the Senior Vice President and Provost, the Dean, and their offices.

The Dean will also arrange for unit staff to present testimony concerning such reports as the Library Council finds useful in carrying out its responsibilities. The Dean's assistance to the committee shall also include providing the Library Council members with the opportunity to attend an appropriate orientation session dealing with the Libraries.
- D. Control of the Library Council's agenda will be the responsibility of the Library Council Chair and the voting members of the Library Council.
- E. While being responsive to the needs of the Senior Vice President and Provost and the Senate in a timely manner is necessary, the sponsoring parties and the Dean of the Libraries must not attempt to micro-manage the ongoing operation of the Library Council. In turn the Library Council must not attempt to micro manage the Libraries.

- B. The Chair may present reports and recommendations to the Senate but will not have a vote in Senate proceedings, unless he or she is a member of the Senate.
- C. Since the committees of the Senior Vice President and Provost range widely in form and function, and do not operate under a formal plan of organization and bylaws, there is no need to specify the Library Council's standing in the same fashion. For other purposes, such as APAC review of the Unit, the Library Council might be consulted like a College Advisory Council (that colleges will have under the shared governance plan) could be.
- D. The Dean of Libraries will ordinarily meet with the Library Council and have a voice in its deliberations. Since one of the three main functions of the Library Council is to advise the Dean, the Dean shall not formally be a member of the Library Council. On formal reports and recommendations of the Library Council to the University Senate or to the Senior Vice President and Provost, the Dean of the Libraries may send a separate memorandum to the Senate or the Senior Vice President and Provost, as appropriate, supporting or opposing the report or the recommendations, and providing rationale for the Dean's position.

5. Review of the Library Council: The Library Council and its operations will be reviewed in conjunction with the periodic review of the Senate and the Plan.

APPENDIX 4
CHARTER OF THE UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The University of Maryland at College Park is dedicated to higher learning, research, and public service. An intercollegiate athletic program can significantly contribute to the learning and the public service components of the Campus Mission. The operation of a successful athletic program fosters spirit, identity and a sense of pride within the campus community and provides talented student-athletes with the opportunity to enrich their collegiate experience through participation in a challenging and competitive athletic program. Excellence of the athletic program at College Park stems not only from successful competition, but more importantly, from the general involvement in the Campus milieu of student-athletes who will earn degrees and who in other respects, embody qualities with which the institution can identify. Most importantly, both athletic success and academic integrity are the crucial elements in judging the excellence of the athletic program at the University of Maryland at College Park.

The importance of faculty involvement and influence in the institutional control and operation of an excellent athletic program cannot be overestimated. Faculty advice and participation will enhance the integrity of the athletic program in terms of academic performance, rules compliance, and compatibility of athletic programs with the mission of the campus.

PURPOSE OF THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

First and foremost, the Athletic Council exists to help the University develop and maintain the best possible intercollegiate athletic program consistent with the academic integrity of the institution and the academic and social development of student athletes. The Athletic Council is the primary body, which advises the President on all matters relating to intercollegiate athletics. It is responsible for formulation and recommendation of policy matters affecting intercollegiate athletics and for monitoring the implementation of such policy by the intercollegiate athletics program. The Council, on behalf of the President, provides the necessary faculty input and participation in intercollegiate athletics as required by the Big Ten Conference, National Collegiate Athletic Association and the University of Maryland at College Park. The Council does not execute policy but serves to influence policy development and administration.

This document delineates the responsibilities, processes, and membership of the Athletic Council at the University of Maryland at College Park. It is expected that the Council will be proactive in its task of preparing policy recommendations and monitoring their implementation by the intercollegiate athletics program. The Council expects to have the full support of the Campus in the responsible performance of its duties.

FUNCTION/DUTIES OF THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The major function of the Athletic Council is to assist the President and the Director of Intercollegiate Athletics in the exercise of "institutional responsibility and control of intercollegiate athletics" as required by the constitution of the Big Ten Conference, the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the University of Maryland at College Park. The Council functions in advisory, compliance, liaison, and representative capacities. The Athletic Council shall meet at least four times each year, twice in each semester, and at such other times as needed to carry out the duties of the Council. Specific duties of the Council shall include but not be limited to the following:

1. Promote an understanding of intercollegiate athletics among faculty, students, staff, alumni and other members of the University of Maryland at College Park community.

Staff at each constituent institution shall also select an alternate who shall substitute for a regular member of CUSS when needed. Alternates should be selected at the same time and in the same manner as regular members. A delegation may include more than one (1) alternate who is eligible to cast a vote for an absent member provided the member has given prior notification to the Chair of CUSS. The University of Maryland, College Park is entitled to three (3) representatives, and up to three (3) alternates.

As defined in 6.10.f of the Senate Bylaws, the Senate Staff Affairs Committee is responsible for administering the CUSS nomination and election process. Definitions of eligible staff shall be determined by the Board of Regents and CUSS. The CUSS elections will be administered in the spring semester every other year, as the terms of the current CUSS representatives are expiring. The Staff Affairs Committee will solicit candidates from the eligible staff population and will present ballots to the same population with at least one (1) candidate for each vacant position to be filled. Eligible staff employees will vote to elect representatives to CUSS. If there are more candidates than positions, the person(s) receiving the most votes, in order, are declared representatives. University Senate PROPOSAL FORM

Name:	Ellin Scholnick
Date:	9/13/16
Title of Proposal:	Revision to the Senate Bylaws to Provide Representation for Ombuds Officers on Senate Committees
Phone Number:	5-1901
Email Address:	escholni@umd.edu
Campus Address:	4205D John S. Toll Physics Building
Unit/Department/College:	President's Office
Constituency (faculty, staff, undergraduate, graduate):	Faculty Ombuds Officer
Description of issue/concern/policy in question:	The University of Maryland currently has four Ombuds Officers who provide confidential, independent, and impartial Ombuds services to members of the University community on issues specific to Faculty, Staff, Graduate Students, and Undergraduate Students. The role of the Faculty Ombuds Officer was established in 1990 in University policy II-4.00 (A) University of Maryland Policies and Procedures Governing Faculty Grievances. The policy describes the role of the Faculty Ombuds Officer as “counselor, fact-finder, mediator, and negotiator, but not as an advocate for any party in a dispute.” Although the Senate receives an annual report from the Faculty Ombuds Officer, there is no communication channel for discussing institutional structures that underlie complaints. As the current Faculty Ombuds Officer, I have been fortunate enough to have developed informal channels in my time in this role. The former Associate Provost for Faculty Affairs generously met with me on a regular basis. I have served on the taskforce updating the APT policy and on the Senate Faculty Affairs Committee which has addressed the structure of PTK positions. These experiences have helped to inform me about the policies and procedures that have been the sources of complaints and have helped me to advocate for change. I think such experiences have increased my effectiveness and I suggest that it would be helpful to formalize this connection between the Ombuds Officers and the Senate. I propose that the Faculty Ombuds Officer sit as a voting ex officio member on the Faculty Affairs Committee (with comparable positions for other Ombuds Officers on

	appropriate Senate Committees tasked with staff and student issues). Serving on Senate Committees will allow Ombuds Officers to make committees aware of concerns with University policy and institutional structures, but adding such representation will benefit Senate committees as well. Because of their work with University policy and campus community members, Ombuds Officers have a unique institutional perspective, a perspective that is different than that of representatives from the administration or of constituency representatives. Ombuds Officers have a holistic view of the institution, and will be able to speak to the impact of a draft recommendation both on the administration charged with implementing it and on the member of the campus community it will affect. This perspective would be a valuable addition to relevant Senate Committee discussions.
Description of action/changes you would like to see implemented and why:	Revise Senate Committee memberships to include voting ex-officio seats for the Faculty Ombuds Officer on the Senate Faculty Affairs Committee; the Staff Ombuds Officer on the Senate Staff Affairs Committee; and the Undergraduate and Graduate Student Ombuds Officers. Consideration should be given to which Senate Committee would be most appropriate for the Undergraduate and Graduate Student Ombuds Officers to serve on, depending on the types of issues they address (such as the APAS Committee, Educational Affairs Committee, or Student Affairs Committee).
Suggestions for how your proposal could be put into practice:	The Senate ERG Committee should be charged to review the proposal and propose revisions to the Senate Bylaws to include voting ex-officio membership for the Ombuds Officers on appropriate Senate Committees.
