ISSUE

Last year, the Department of Women’s Studies within the College of Arts and Humanities was renamed the Harriet Tubman Department of Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. This proposal is to rename the Upper Division Certificate in “Women’s Studies” to “Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies.” The proposal will not only align the program with the department name, but also reflect the current scope of the program. In 2020, the program modified its curriculum to recognize the breadth of study of interlocking systems of oppression comprising the expansive field of women, gender, and sexuality studies. The new curriculum added greater flexibility by adding new and updated foundational course options as entry points to the certificate: LGBT200 Introduction to Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Studies; WMST200 Introduction to WGSS: Gender, Power, and Society; WMST250 Introduction to WGSS: Art and Culture, WMST263 Introduction to Black Women’s Studies, and WMST298D Bodies in Contention. The program also added multiple options to fulfill the program’s 12 credit specialization requirement, including Social Justice; Transnational Politics and Perspectives; Race, Ethnicity and Class; Bodies, Genders and Sexualities; Arts, Technologies and Cultural Production; Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer Studies, or a student-designed specialization. The new name of the program, therefore, more accurately reflects the inclusiveness of the curriculum.

This proposal was approved by the Senate Programs, Curricula, and Courses committee on February 5, 2021.

RECOMMENDATION(S)

The Senate Committee on Programs, Curricula, and Courses recommends that the Senate approve this name change.

COMMITTEE WORK

The committee considered this proposal for its meeting on February 5, 2021. Ashwini Tambe and Gwen Warman of the Harriet Tubman Department of Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, along with ARHU Associate Dean Ralph Bauer, presented the proposal and answered questions. The committee approved the proposal.

ALTERNATIVES

The Senate could decline to approve this new program title.

RISKS

If the Senate declines to approve this program title change, the current program will not adequately describe the program curriculum.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

---

There are no significant financial implications for program title changes.

Program and Catalog Information

Provide the catalog description of the proposed program. As part of the description, please indicate any areas of concentration or specializations that will be offered.

The Women's Studies Certificate Program consists of an integrated, interdisciplinary curriculum on women and gender that is designed to supplement a student's major. Any student in good standing may enroll in the certificate program by declaring their intention to the Women's Studies Department.

Catalog Program Requirements:

To qualify for a certificate in Women's Studies, a student will be required to earn 21 credits in Women's Studies courses, twelve of which must be at the 3xx/4xx level. No more than nine credits that are applied toward a major may be included in the certificate program. No more than nine credit hours may be taken at institutions other than the University of Maryland. Each student must obtain a grade of "C-" or better in each course that is to be counted toward the certificate. An overall GPA of 2.0 in the certificate is required for graduation. A list of courses offered can be found here: <http://wmst.umd.edu/academics/courses> (<http://wmst.umd.edu/academics/courses/>). Of the 21 credits, courses must be distributed as follows:

Course	Title	Credits
Foundation Courses:
One of the following courses:		3
LGBT200	Introduction to Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Studies
WMST200	Introduction to WGSS: Gender, Power, and Society

Consult the department for eligible courses in each area.

Program Modification Information

Impact on current students. It should be specifically acknowledged that students enrolled in the program prior to the effective date of any curriculum change may complete their program under the old requirements if they wish. The courses required must remain available, or suitable substitutions specifically designated.

There are no curricular changes in this proposal, so there is no impact on the students.

Linked Programs

Renaming Program

Provide a rationale for renaming the program.

The Department of Women's Studies has been renamed the Harriet Tubman Department of Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. This change will bring the certificate and department into alignment. In addition, the WMST course prefix is also being changed to WGSS. Once finalized the changes to the program name and course prefix can be updated as needed in the text of the undergraduate catalog.

WGSS Certificate New Catalog Description:

The Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies Certificate Program offers a flexible, intersectional and interdisciplinary curriculum that centers the study of structural inequity, as grounded in hierarchies of gender, race, sexuality, ethnicity, nationality, and ability. The interdisciplinary nature of the certificate makes it an excellent supplement to a wide cross-section of majors at the University of Maryland. WGSS Certificate students use their certificate to pursue careers in a wide range of areas, including non-profit management, social justice advocacy, law, health-related fields, student affairs, and government and public policy. Any student in good standing may enroll in the certificate program by declaring their intention to the Harriet Tubman Department of Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies.
