ISSUE

In 2020, the College of Arts and Humanities’ Department of Women’s Studies was renamed the Harriet Tubman Department of Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. In the spring of 2021, the undergraduate major and upper-division certificate program titles in Women’s Studies were also changed to Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. This proposal is to rename the Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in “Women’s Studies” to “Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies.” The proposal will align the program with the department and undergraduate program names, and also reflect the current scope of the program.

The proposal was approved administratively by the Graduate School PCC committee on October 27, 2021, and the Senate Programs, Curricula, and Courses committee on November 5, 2021.

RECOMMENDATION(S)

The Senate Committee on Programs, Curricula, and Courses recommends that the Senate approve this name change.

COMMITTEE WORK

The committee considered this proposal at its meeting on November 5, 2021 as part of its consent agenda. A presentation was not required because previous proposals to change the names of the department and the undergraduate programs were approved by the committee. The PCC Committee approved the proposal.

ALTERNATIVES

The Senate could decline to approve this new program title.

RISKS

If the Senate declines to approve this program title change, the current program will not adequately describe the coursework and activities of the program.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

There are no significant financial implications for program title changes.
