The School of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures (SLLC), within the College of Arts and Humanities, proposes to rename its Bachelor of Arts in “Germanic Studies” to “German Studies.” The new name aligns with how bachelor’s programs in German are titled at peer institutions. Additionally, the new name more accurately reflects the expertise of the existing faculty and the content of the existing curriculum, which focuses on German studies as opposed to the broader Germanic studies, which includes the literatures and cultures of Scandinavia. The program has no plans to rehire in the field of Scandinavian literature and culture in the future.

No other changes to the program are proposed at this time.

This proposal was approved by the Senate Programs, Curricula, and Courses committee on November 6, 2020.

The Senate Committee on Programs, Curricula, and Courses recommends that the Senate approve this name change.

The committee considered this proposal at its meeting on November 6, 2020. Julie Koser, from the School of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures, and Ralph Bauer, from the College of Arts and Humanities, presented the proposal and answered questions from the committee. The proposal was approved by the committee.

The Senate could decline to approve this program name change.
RISKS

If the Senate declines to approve this new name, the university will lose an opportunity to reflect more accurately content of the program as well as the faculty expertise in the German area of the SLLC.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

There are no significant financial implications with changing the name of the academic program. No other aspects of the program are changing.

Proposed Action
Rename Program

Program Name
German Studies Major

Program Status
Active
Proposal Summary
We are proposing a name change for the BA major (and minor), MA, and PhD programs in order to bring them in line with peer institutions and the current state of the field. Additionally, this change will more accurately reflect the expertise of existing faculty and the content of curriculum offered at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. The existing name "Germanic" accommodated the expertise of faculty members who researched and taught on the literatures and cultures of Scandinavia. These faculty members have since retired and the program has no plans to hire in these fields in the future. For these reasons, the program requests approval to rename the programs "German Studies."

Program and Catalog Information
Provide the catalog description of the proposed program. As part of the description, please indicate any areas of concentration or specializations that will be offered.

The 36-credit BA in Germanic Studies is centered on the study of the German language as well as the literatures and cultures of Germanic peoples. Students who complete the requirements for the major can expect to be able to speak, read, write, and understand German at a level that would allow them to communicate with native speakers. Additionally, students will be able to recognize and interpret the diverse cultural perspectives and products of the German-speaking world, in order to be culturally sensitive members of society.

Total Credits: 36

1 A minimum of two 3xx or 4xx level courses in each of three areas: language, literature, and culture and 2 electives.

2 Taught in English

Students must earn a grade of "C-" or higher in each course applied toward a major or minor in the School of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures. Additionally, an overall GPA of 2.0 in a major or minor is required for graduation.

Language of Instruction

No more than 6 credits of the 36 total required may be satisfied by courses taught in English. With the approval of the German Studies advisor, 3 of the 6 credits may be taken outside the department.
Sample plan. Provide a term by term sample plan that shows how a hypothetical student would progress through the program to completion. It should be clear the length of time it will take for a typical student to graduate. For undergraduate programs, this should be the four-year plan.

Please see attachments for sample current 4-year academic plan and proposed new advising worksheet.

This scenario presupposes a student declaring the major in their sophomore year and placing into GERM 204. * denotes Gen Ed course.

Year 1
Fall: Total GERM credits: 0
Spring: Total GERM credits: 0

Year 2
Fall: GERM 204: German Grammar Review (3); GERM 301: Conversation and Composition I (3); GERM 2xx [elective] (3). TOTAL GERM credits: 9

Program Modification Information

Impact on current students. It should be specifically acknowledged that students enrolled in the program prior to the effective date of any curriculum change may complete their program under the old requirements if they wish. The courses required must remain available, or suitable substitutions specifically designated.

There will be no impact on current students in completing degree requirements due to renaming of the program.

Renaming Program

Provide a rationale for renaming the program.

We are proposing a name change for the BA major (and minor), MA, and PhD programs in order to bring them in line with peer institutions and the current state of the field. Additionally, this change will more accurately reflect the expertise of existing faculty and the content of curriculum offered at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. Reviewer Comments

Julie Koser (jkoser) (Mon, 29 Jun 2020 21:07:24 GMT): Would also like abbreviation to match MA and PhD degrees (GERS) rather than (GERM)
Ralph Bauer (bauerr) (Fri, 18 Sep 2020 17:31:55 GMT): I was unable to edit the fields for the catalog description and the sample plan, which the program provided upon request from the ARHU PCC committee. I have attached them to the proposal instead.
